Brief Crime Spree of Two Amherst Boys Ends Abruptly

WAUPACA — Two Amherst youths, both 16, who held a helpless motorist captive at the point of a loaded pistol, were overpowered by Sheridan service station by their hostage Wednesday afternoon and have been turned over to Portage County authorities.

Police said the youths admitted they were running away from home and had taken one car belonging to one youth's mother, had stolen a truck which they later overturned, then held Frank Grulke, 38, route 1, Amherst, hostage in his car after Grulke had offered to give the youths aid after the truck mishap.

Two Suitcases Found with the youths was a suitcase which contained clothing and another case which contained several knives, a straight razor and ammunition on the .45 caliber automatic pistol.

Waupaca County Sheriff Joran Frazier and Undersheriff William Mork questioned the youths about burglaries in northeast, Amherst Junction, Stevens Point and Schofield.

Authorities have given this account of the incident. The youths did not attend Amherst High School Wednesday afternoon, but instead took one youth's mother's car which later froze up.

Pickup Truck The youths then took a pickup truck parked along an Amherst street and drove to Waupaca where they purchased two quarts of oil. On a curve near Sheridan the truck overturned and the youths received minor cuts.

Grulke stopped his car and offered to give the youths assistance when he saw their injured in the ditch. According to

Soviets Reject China Protest

Charge Militiamen Beat Students in Anti-U. S. Rioting

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has rejected Red China's protest that Chinese students were brutally beaten by Soviet militiamen during a demonstration at the U.S. Embassy.

A spokesman for the Soviet Foreign Ministry broke a five-day silence on the Chinese protest to acknowledge it had been received. He said Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko orally rejected it on the spot.

The protest contained a stiff Chinese demand for a Soviet apology.

Chinese students in Moscow University and other schools have been passing the word they will be called home if the Soviet Union did not admit its police and troops were brutal, informed sources said.

While the Russians had been silent on China's protest, a Soviet spokesman had denied a Chinese charge that students fused proper medical treatment.

Germany to Hold to Israel Arms Decision

BONN, Germany (AP) — West Germany plans to stick to its decision not to resume arms shipments to Israel, a spokesman for Chancellor Ludwig Erhard said today.

Israel reportedly is demanding that the Erhard government resume the shipments as a condition for establishing diplomatic relations with West Germany.

The Bonn government scoffed at a threat today by President Jamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic to cripple West German trade if Erhard recognizes the Israeli government.

Halted Shipments West Germany halted the arms shipments under pressure from Nasser. About $20 million worth of an $80-million deal remained to be delivered. The Erhard spokesman, press

Court Refuses to Hold King as March Leader

100 Keeping Street Vigil For Unitarian Minister Unconscious, Near Death

BY REX THOMAS

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — A federal judge rejected today a motion by Sheriff James G. Clark of Dallas County that Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., leader of a massive Negro voter drive, be held in contempt for leading a street march at Selma.

"Any contempt or order to show cause is a matter between this court and the alleged contemtor," said U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr.

The motion by Clark's attorneys came at the outset of a hearing on a move by civil rights leaders and the Justice Department for an order barring interference with peaceful demonstrations.

The motion for a contempt proceeding against King was based on his leading a Tuesday march of about 2,500 Negroes and white clergymen from a Selma church to a meeting with state troopers. King turned back when halted by the troopers.

Johnson had ordered civil rights leaders to suspend their planned march from Selma to Montgomery. He gave no indication today whether he considered the attempted march a violation of his order.

The meeting of King and the troopers and the peaceful ending of the march were prearranged with the aid of federal officials. A similar march Sunday was broken up when troopers clubbed and tear-gassed the marchers.

While the hearing went on, about 100 demonstrators continued a prayer vigil in a Selma street for a white minister lying near death after a beating by a white gang.

King was called as a witness. So were Clark and Col. Albert J. Lingo, commander of state troopers. Other witnesses included the mother and grandfather of Jimmie Lee Jackson, a Negro laborer shot to death Feb. 18 in racial violence.

There were these other developments on the Alabama racial scene:

Clergyman Still Unconscious

Three Men Face Charges in Beating of White Minister

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A white minister was near death today in a hospital, his anxious wife near his side, while in Selma three white men faced state and federal charges in the beating given him and two other Unitarian clergymen.

The Rev. James J. Reeb, 38, of Boston, still was unconscious from a clubbing he received

Tuesday night in Selma as the aftermath of a civil rights march there.

His wife, Marie, was with him at the hospital, pale and shaken by what had happened.

The mother of four children told newsmen Wednesday after her arrival from Boston that both she and her husband had been aware of the potential danger when he took the trip South.

"I said I would prefer that he didn't go," she said, her lips quivering slightly. "But he felt he had to go."

Mrs. Reeb said her husband considered the civil rights cause important enough to merit the beating he received at the hands of white men outside a Selma cafe.

Escaped Injury Reeb was with the Rev. Orloff F. Miller, 25, of Boston, and the Rev. Clark Olson, 32, of Berkeley, Calif. at the time. Miller and Olson escaped serious injury.

Three men were arrested in connection with the incident and pickup orders were issued for a fourth man still at large. Two of the men were released from Selma city jail early today on bond of $7500 each on upset.

The boy was returning from

Advocates of Civil Rights Sitting-in at White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — About a dozen civil rights advocates staged a sit-in demonstration in the White House today.

The demonstrators, whites and Negroes, entered the executive mansion with the regular flow of tourists and, once they got into the ground-floor hallway, sat on the floor and began chanting, "We shall not be moved."

Mr. Ralph Stover, chief of the White House police force, went to the scene and asked the demonstrators to leave. They made no move.

The demonstration — nothing like it ever happened

before at the White House — began sometime before noon.

At the noon hour, the people still were sitting on the corridor floor, adjacent to the diplomatic reception room and the White House library.

This is on the floor below the mansion's most familiar rooms — the East, Blue, Red and Green rooms, and the state dining room.

It was understood that President Johnson was in the mansion — not in his office — when the demonstration began.

At least one police patrol wagon was sent to the east wing of the White House after the sit-in began.

Seek Mediation in Viet Nam

Churches Council Critical of U. S.

GENEVA (AP) — The World Council of Churches sharply criticized U.S. policy in Viet Nam today and suggested that Southeast Asian countries not be involved in the struggle there be asked to mediate.

A statement issued by the council's Commission on International Affairs called U.S. measures to offset Communist infiltration in Viet Nam futile it said they only risk the danger of escalating the conflict.

The statement was prepared by the commission's chairman, Sir Kenneth Grubb of London; and its director, Dr. O. Frederick Nolde of New York. It was endorsed by the World Council, which represents more than 200 Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox churches in some 80 countries.

The statement also sharply criticized U.S. policy toward Communist China. "The continued artificial isolation of some 700 million people

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — A group of Indonesian navy officers demanding changes in the sea service reportedly have ignored an ultimatum to return to duty at the Surabaya naval base in east Java.

Reliable information reaching here today said, however, that others in the group of 700 dissident officers had returned to their base by the Tuesday midnight deadline.

The navy disclosed earlier this month that its leadership was defied by officers.

Rear Adm. Martadinate, the naval chief of staff, issued the ultimatum on March 5 after receiving orders from President Sukarno to restore order and authority.

Thousands March in Sympathy

Federal Intervention Sought in Selma Dilemma

NEW YORK (AP) — More protest demonstrations were held in cities across the nation over the situation in Selma, Ala., with increasing demands for federal intervention.

As thousands marched in sympathy with the drive by Alabama Negroes for voting rights, governors, senators and church groups spoke out Wednesday.

There were demands for stronger law enforcement protection, in the wake of the attack in Selma on three white ministers.

James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, threatened a massive march on Washington unless President Johnson endorses new voting rights legislation and sends federal officers into Alabama by Sunday.

Soon after returning from Selma, Farmer told a New York news conference: "I am certainly charging that President Johnson has not been forceful enough."

The latest demonstrations were held in San Francisco, Kansas City, Los Angeles, Cambridge, Mass.; Madison, Wis.; Buffalo, N.Y.; Joliet, Ill. and in front of the White House.

The National Council of Churches called a meeting for Friday of religious leaders from across the country. The gathering will be at the Lutheran Church of the Reformation in Washington.

Demonstrations at the federal building in Los Angeles resulted in 98 arrests, including 29 persons who were charged with obstruction of U.S. mail after they lay down in front of mail trucks and were forcibly removed. The building was closed early.

Leslie N. Shaw, Negro postmaster of Los Angeles, criticized the demonstrations.

Harry Bridges, West Coast longshoremen's union leader, told 1,500 persons at a San Francisco rally that his 65,000 union members would "refuse to handle any goods or merchandise from Alabama until the rights of all the people of Alabama are recognized and fully protected."

Board Honors Two Who Will Quit in April

Miller of Shiocton Ends 24 Years as County Supervisor

Two veteran Outagamie County Board supervisors, who have announced they are not seeking re-election, were honored Wednesday by the board.

They were Supv. George Miller (Shiocton), who has served on the Outagamie board since 1941, and John Heidemann (Town of Buchanan), who has been on the board since 1958.

Chairman Alvin Fulcer praised Miller as "a man who has really served his constituents well" and Heidemann as "a good supervisor." Miller told the board that he and his wife are moving to Iowa. Heidemann, who said he has been in public life since 1928, said he is retiring "so that I can enjoy the remaining years that I have."

Receive Ovation

Both men were given a standing ovation by the county board. Prior to adjournment Wednesday afternoon, the board passed a resolution which sets up a 50 mile per hour speed limit on County Trunk OO (Northland Avenue) from one-half mile east of State 47 to County Trunk E (Ballard Road).

As a result of the action, a 50 m.p.h. speed limit exists on OO from Mason Street to Ballard Road.

Fines for violations of the speed limits are not to be more than $200, nor less than $10.

The action was taken at the request of Appleton Police Chief Earl Wolfe and was approved in advance by the State Highway Commission.

One-Act Plays To be Given At Lawrence

John F. Swanson, 1621 S. Connell St., is one of two Lawrence University student play-directors whose one-act dramas will be seen Friday and Saturday at the Lawrence Music-Drama Center.

Swanson, a senior, will direct "The Imbecile," by Luigi Pirandello, Thomas Braun, junior from Minneapolis, will direct "The Tiger," by Murray Shisgal. Swanson's production, a four-sided arena setting, begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Experimental Theatre. Braun's will follow in Stansbury Theatre.

"The Imbecile," a story of political intrigue in Italy in the 1920's, is laced with an undercurrent of gently humor. "The Tiger," a two-character dialogue, is a satire on the theatre-of-the-absurd. It originated in an off-Broadway production in 1963.

The two student directors are members of a Lawrence play-directing class taught by F. Theodore Cloak, professor theatre and drama. Their productions are staged as a course requirement. The plays are last in the current student one-act series.

Men Named to Head Appleton Area Council

John MacDonald, Ed Krueger Leaders Of Safety Group

Ed Krueger and John MacDonald were elected to serve as the first leaders of the newly organized Greater Appleton Area Safety Council at a meeting Tuesday night in the Wisconsin Michigan Power Co. building.

Krueger, of Wisconsin Michigan, will act as president and MacDonald, of Appleton Machine Co., will be vice president. Also serving the council during its first year will be Harvey Priebe of Fox River Tractor Co., secretary, and Chief of Police Earl Wolff, treasurer.

Named to head committees for the year were William Berfield, by-laws and constitution; Jack Maxwell, membership; Les Forde, program and projects; and Glen Reed, publicity.

Medical Advisor

Dr. Gilbert Mueller was appointed by the Outagamie County Medical Society to act as the council's medical advisor. The council, organized through the Appleton chapter of the American Red Cross, is seeking to set up a program of safety practices and first aid training in business and industry during its initial period. Eventually it will broaden its scope to include traffic, home and water safety.

Membership is open to any firm or individual interested in promoting safety in the Fox Cities.

Outagamie Board Defers Action on Job, Pay Plan

Jacobs Plan Goes Back to Committee for More Study, Action at April Session

It will be up to a new county board which takes office after further joint study by the April 6 election to decide on a executive and civil service and job classification and pay plan salary committees.

The 1964 Outagamie County committee, under Supv. John Board term was adjourned Schreiter (Appleton 6), the Wednesday by Chairman Alvin chairman, was directed by the Fulcer of Kimberly after the board last year to study and board had failed to take action evaluate the plan and to report on final implementation of the back to the board at its March J. L. Jacobs Co. classification session with conclusions and and pay plan for county em-recommendations.

The study, along with recommendations made by the civil service and salary committee, submitted up to Jan. 15 and made a set of recommendations on disposition of the objections.

However, after hearing several objections by supervisors on classifications and salaries for various positions and employees, Supv. Russell DeLaHunt (Kaukauna 5) suggested and Supv. Mark Catlin (Appleton 7) motioned that the matter be referred to the joint committees for further study.

Supv. Paul Kostka (Little Chute) objected, "If some of these people are underpaid," he said, "let's take on our responsibility and do something instead of hiding behind someone's back."

Schreiter explained to the board that it was impossible for his committee to be handing out raises to some employees without taking money away from some others.

These issues are typical of many to be aired and discussed in the second of the three-part "Inter-Faith Dialogues" open to members of all faiths at 7 p.m. here today. But the board tied Sunday at Trinity English Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The first of the dialogues was held last Sunday before a standing room crowd in excess of 450. The topic of "Scriptures versus Tradition" was delineated by Rev. Marvin Schilling, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Appleton, Rev. John Dewane, St. Mary Catholic Church of Menasha, and Rev. I. B. Kindem, pastor of Trinity Church.

Audience comments following the session indicated that the dialogues were accomplishing their basic purpose of trying to further Christian unity through understanding. Moderator Ralph Watts expressed the views of many in his summation when he remarked, "How much better it is to have clergymen of different faiths talking with each other than about each other."

The same principals again will be on hand Sunday for the second in the dialogue series based on the topic of "The Role of Clergy and Laity." Doors will open at 6:15 p.m. with the session scheduled to start promptly at 7 p.m. and winding up at 8:30 p.m. There will be no admission charge, nor will an offering be taken. Members of the audience again will be given an opportunity to submit written questions dealing with the evening's subject matter.

Harve Wolfe to Quit as Outagamie County's Republican Chairman

Annual Party Caucus, Election Of Officers Scheduled March 18

Outagamie County's Republican Party will have a new chairman after next Thursday's County party caucus.

Chairman Harve Wolfe told the Post-Crescent today that he will not seek another term when the county GOP elects officers at its annual caucus.

The new chairman will be the best interests of all our people.

"In this regard, it has been a most rewarding experience. However," he said, "since the increasing pressures of business and the needs of my family do not allow the time the job requires, it is with reluctance that I make this decision."

Wolfe is employed by the Appleton Works of Allis-Chalmers, Inc., as an industrial engineer.

Wolfe didn't make any recommendations for a person, to fill the party executive post, but said "there are several people within the organization who are qualified to fill the position."

Two Appointments

However, he did announce two changes in county GOP's executive committee. Henry Schleg, 1315 S. Alicia Drive, has taken over as budget and finance committee chairman due to the resignation of Charles Dostal; and Arnold Grummer, 63 Bellaire Court, is taking over as position of county chairman for publicity chairman, replacing Mrs. Peter Nelson, who also by the party's executive committee to replace John Conway who resigned to become Eighth District GOP chairman.

Wolfe said today his decision "was a difficult one to make."

Valley Plan Commission's Enabling Measure Hits Snag

Bill May Die Unless Compromise Is Reached With Utility Firms

The commission won the endorsement of a Legislative Council interim study committee for changes in the municipal cooperation law that would permit two or more municipalities joining together on regional projects to borrow money, condemn land and property, and enlist counties and towns in such enterprises.

Limit Projects

But major utility corporations are complaining that the phrase "regional projects" may disguise a possible attempt for such regional project commissions to enter the field of generating and selling power, or distributing gas, or delivering telephone service. They have demanded an outright exclusion of such programs from the enabling powers granted under the bill.

The Fox River Valley group, the League of Wisconsin Municipalities and the City of Appleton countered with a proposal to limit any possible utility project to the conditions contained under the present law. They did not sponsor the regional projects measure to take away existing powers from municipalities, they declared firmly at the hearing.

The utilities rejected the municipal officers' proffered amendment, and the municipal spokesmen rejected the utilities' suggested change, and with that stalemate the assembly committee on municipalities abandoned the topic and went on to other business after nearly three hours of debate.

R. W. Peterson, counsel for the Wisconsin Public Service Corp., declared his firm's "unalterable" opposition to the measure unless his amendment is accepted. He was joined by speakers for the Wisconsin Power and Light Co., the Northern States Power Co. and the Wisconsin Telephone Co.

Eugene Franchette, director of the Fox Valley Regional Planning Commission, explained the careful preparation of the bill and asserted that public power enterprises never entered into the motivation or the preparation.

Utility Fears

But utility spokesmen made clear their fear that the bill as drafted — with complex references to numerous existing chapters and sections of state law — would make it easier for

Sixty Appleton firemen, who authentic rescue only a few feet before it came to rest about 10 feet off the tracks. were about to settle down in the from their classroom. Mrs. Raymond Carpenter, 42, Capt. Robert Ertl, standing in fire station to some instruction about rescue operations Wednesday afternoon, were called upon instead to help in an

Auto Rally Spurs Market

Slight Advance Is Seen in Trading Termed Fairly Active

NEW YORK (AP) — A rally by autos helped spur a general market advance early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

After two sessions of irregular decline, the list began to pull itself together for the best upward movement of the week. The market was only irregularly higher at the opening. Autos began to advance in mid-morning. Credited for some of the strength was a published report that the auto industry is moving from one record to another.

Steels edged higher on balance. Traders returned to the airlines, some of which showed gains exceeding a point. Chemicals and electrical equipments also were higher.

A rise in retail sales in February to a record for the third straight month was another encouraging factor.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .9 at 335.0 with industrials up 17.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 4.40 at 596.79.

A new wave of trading interest swelled KLM Airlines, Eastern Airlines and United Airlines edged higher.

10 Days in Jail Must Be Better Than Having To Sell Automobile

OSHKOSH — Gerald Engelman, 23, route 1, Neenah, who Tuesday had been remanded to the county jail until April 6 or until he had sold his car, today chose to serve a 10-day sentence in the Winnebago County Jail instead of selling the car.

Engelman had previously pleaded guilty to a charge of failure to stop for a stop sign at the State 110 and U.S. 41 ramp road intersection Feb. 13. Judge James Sitter, in Winnebago County Court Tuesday, cited a lengthy driving record in ordering the sale.

Engelman must prove financial responsibility to retain his driver's license.

St. Joseph Holy Name Unit Plans Program

The St. Joseph Holy Name Society has planned a father and son program for Sunday.

The members will attend the 8 a.m. mass and received communion with their sons. A breakfast will be served after mass in the school cafeteria. A panel discussion on scouting will be presented.

Corporate bonds were mostly steady. U.S. government bonds edged higher.

Rescue Course

Firemen, who had been called to the station to attend one of six in a series of rescue and lifesaving courses, rushed to Mrs. Carpenter's aid.

Two firemen helped the woman, still in shock, from her demolished car and put her in a fire department rescue car. She was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment of cuts, shock and bruises.

Appleton police said the woman was driving south and the train was traveling at 35 miles an hour in a northeasterly direction when the accident occurred.

Mrs. Carpenter told her rescuers that she did not see the train, nor did she see crossing signals working when she drove across the tracks. The train hit the car near the right, rear tire, and spun it almost in a circle to gains exceeding a point each. A 6-point jump by IBM was a feature.

Up a point or better were International Nickel, Union Carbide, General Electric, Polaroid, Corvette and Merck.

Prices were higher in active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Capt. Donald Dexter, right, of the Appleton Fire Department, gives instructions to other firemen aiding Mrs. Raymond Carpenter, middle, trapped in her car when the car was hit by a train near the new Appleton Fire Station on Drew Street Wednesday afternoon. Capt. Robert Ertl, left, who witnessed the accident, helps Mrs. Carpenter from the damaged car. In the lower picture, debris from the damaged car was thrown against the Appleton Fire Station, damaging the Appleton Fire Station, damaging the door. (Photos by the Appleton Fire Department)

Insurmountable Odds Down Oshkosh Players

BY JAY JOSLYN Post-Crescent Staff Writer

OSHKOSH — The Oshkosh Community Players, Wednesday night, struggled against what proved to be insurmountable odds; a tasteless, rambling cliché-ridden theatrical blivet of a play, ill prepared and poorly produced before a tiny audience.

The skirmish was Chester A. Pingry's production of Max Wilk's "Cloud 7," a potpourri presentation purported to be an examination of a rebellion against The Establishment. The Players valiantly return to the ramparts at the Grand Theater at 8 p.m. today and Friday.

Masons Will Confer Degree for Green Bay

KAUKAUNA — The Masonic Lodge will confer the master mason degree as courtesy work for Washington Lodge 21, Free and Accepted Masons of Green Bay, at a 7:30 p.m. Monday meeting at the Masonic Temple.

The Green Bay Lodge will furnish a candidate ready for advancement with local lodge officers to confer the first portion of the degree work and the officers from Washington Lodge to complete it. Following a lunch will be served in the dining room. A delegation from Green Bay is expected to accompany their candidate.

Winnebago Receives Accreditation

Mental Hospital One of 2 Approved County Institutions

WINNEBAGO — Winnebago County Hospital has received accreditation from the American Hospital Association. It is one of two county mental institutions in the State of Wisconsin to receive such approval. The other is in Milwaukee County.

Word that the board of trustees of the American Hospital Association had approved the Winnebago County Hospital was received this week by William O. Vogel, superintendent of Winnebago County Institutions.

"This approval of our County Hospital is another step in the program approved by our own board of trustees to offer a degree of care to our patients commensurate with the current knowledge concerning treatment of the mentally ill," Supt. Vogel commented.

"Winnebago County Hospital patients are now being treated for return to the community. Its previous role as a custodial institution is being changed as rapidly as possible. This accreditation will assist us in recruiting a well qualified staff and brighten the hopes of our patients and their families."

MU Professor To Give Talk At Lawrence

Science Colloquium Scheduled Friday at Youngchild Hall

Dr. Alan H. Mehler, professor of biochemistry and chairman of the department of biochemistry, Marquette University School of Medicine, will address a Lawrence University Science Colloquium at 4 p.m. Friday in room 161 of Youngchild Hall of Science.

His topic will be "Structure of SRNA and Its Significance in Protein Synthesis." The program is open to the public. A coffee-hour will be held at 3:30 p.m.

Mehler was formerly chief of the Enzyme Chemistry Section of the National Institute of Dental Research, Bethesda, Md. He earned an A.B. degree at Washington University, St. Louis, and a Ph.D. at New York University.

In 1948 he was a member of the Weizmann Institute of Science in Israel. A year later he became a research associate at the Rheumatic Fever Research Institute, Northwestern University. During the 1949-51 academic years he was an assistant professor at the Institute of Radiobiology and Biophysics, University of Chicago.

From 1951-60 he worked as visiting scientist and chemist at the National Institute of Health. He joined the National Institute of Dental Research in 1960.

Mehler studied in this country and at the Sorbonne, Paris, as a senior fellow in the department of genetics of the National Science Foundation.

His special fields of interest include enzyme chemistry, photosynthesis and intermediary metabolism.

Bergstrom Art Center Receives First Pima Paperweight Certificate

NEENAH — The Bergstrom Art Center was named an honorary member of the Paper Industry Management Association and was presented the first paperweight type of membership certificate to add to its collection of paperweights, one of the largest in the world.

Larry Murtfeldt, national president of the Paper Industry Management Association (PIMA), first presented the paperweight to H. R. Moore, president of Bergstrom Paper Co. Making the presentation to the art center was D. W. Bergstrom, executive vice president of Bergstrom Paper Co. He was accompanied by Frank R. Hamilton, Bergstrom production manager and national treasurer of PIMA, and Lawrence Zielinski, Bergstrom finishing plant superintendent and second vice chairman of the Northwestern Division of PIMA.

It was Zielinski's idea that the first paperweight certificate should be presented to the art center because of its already large collection.

New members of PIMA will soon be receiving their paperweight membership certificates. This type of membership certificate replaces the cumbersome framed paper certificates hung on the walls of offices of the members.

The paperweight is made up of a moulded plastic filled with a heavy material to increase the weight of the plastic.

The Paper Industry Management Association is the former American Pulp and Paper Superintendents' Association. The change in the name of the organization also saw new programs developed to fill management needs. The purpose of PIMA is to assist the makers of pulp and paper to develop management personnel, to improve methods of manufacture and to provide products which most effectively serve the progressive needs of mankind.

Young Appleton Man Put on Probation For Morals Offense

WAUPACA — Jerome Litscher Jr., 22, 1105 W. Grant St., Appleton, was placed on probation for two years Wednesday after pleading guilty to two moral charges involving a 15-year-old youth.

Litscher pleaded guilty of sexual perversion and also of enticing a child for immoral purposes. He was sentenced to 18 months in the state reformatory at Green Bay on each count. However, Judge Wendell McHenry stayed both sentences and placed Litscher on probation to the State Department of Public Welfare. Litscher also was ordered to attend a guidance clinic at Appleton.

Litscher was arrested by sheriff authorities after they received a complaint from the parents of the boy involved in the incident which occurred south of New London Oct. 22.

Legion at Little Chute To Construct Building

Small Structure on McKinley Street Would Serve as Office Headquarters, Storage Site

LITTLE CHUTE — Plans for a small building on McKinley Street owned property on McKinley Street.

The structure would serve as an office and meeting place for small groups of Legionnaires such as the executive committee or picnic committee. Meetings requiring larger quarters would continue to be held at the village hall. The proposed building also will serve to store Legion equipment, according to Harold Van Dyke, building committee chairman.

No date for construction was set. Members agreed to furnish volunteer labor to assist the Jaycees with construction of a bulkhead at Doyle Park in conjunction with the proposed

Kaukauna to Offer Summer School Work

12 Subjects Listed If Enrollment Warrants Classes

KAUKAUNA — The Board of Education has approved a summer school program in which 12 subjects would be offered if enrollment warrants.

Courses to be repeated from last year include beginning typing, world history, creative writing and world literature, business English and corrective reading for students from the seventh through ninth grades.

Elementary school courses repeated would be remedial reading and spelling and speech correction. New offerings would be related math 1 for incoming ninth graders who need related math before attempting algebra; biology for students desiring to take chemistry as sophomores and who wish to get in the entire 5-year science program; speed reading for sophomores through seniors who wish to improve reading speed; fine arts with emphasis on art and music appreciation for sophomores through seniors and an abbreviated vocal course for students desiring additional vocal training.

New Electives

The board also approved two electives for the seventh and eighth grade curriculum to take effect in September. Educational skills will help a student's study habits, aid in note taking, organizing of papers, locating information, outlining, work organization, vocabulary building and other skills.

Space science will deal with rockets, space ships, stars, planets, moons, communication satellites and introduction to astronomy.

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — The resignations of University of California President Clark Kerr and Martin Meyerson, acting chancellor of the Berkeley campus, rallied support today for the top administrators of the restless college community.

Kerr, 53, head of the university's nine campuses, indicated Wednesday he had taken the "dramatic step" in response to recent "obscenity" rallies that he said perverted freedom into "license for hard core pornography."

The rallies on campus have been outdoor sessions in which a handful of students shouted obscenity words and displayed obscene words on placards.

Labor Unions Guilty of Violating 'Civil Rights'

Lawrence Says

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — "Civil rights" is today a much misunderstood, if not abused, phrase. There is a furor currently about literacy tests and other obstacles being placed in the way of Negroes who wish to exercise their constitutional right to vote. But there is no public debate on whether persons, either white or colored, should be allowed to sell their votes to the highest bidder. Yet it is well known that all sorts of bribes and material considerations are being offered in political campaigns in order to get votes. Scandals occur not only in local elections but in federal elections.

Another abuse of "civil rights" is in the field of religion. The first amendment to the constitution says that no law shall be passed which in any way prohibits "the free exercise" of religion by a citizen. Only this week, the Supreme Court of the United States ruled a person can be excused from military service as a conscientious objector even when his religious belief against participation in war is unorthodox.

But a few days earlier there

was a news report which says, in effect, that a man who objects on religious grounds to joining a labor union can be dismissed from his job upon the demand of the union representing other employees in the same plant. The news item came over the wires of the United Press International from Evansville, Ind., March 4, and reads as follows:

UPI Dispatch

"An official of the International Association of Machinists said today there is no chance that three men who opposed joining a labor union on religious grounds will keep their jobs.

"The official, Robert Brown, said there will be no local union vote on the issue to permit the three—J. W. Gingell, Claude Smith and Granvil Ruddell—to keep their jobs after a closed-shop clause in a contract with the Arkla Air Conditioning Company becomes effective March 23.

"We will enforce the terms of the contract," said Brown.

"He said a union vote would be illegal since the vote to include a closed-shop clause if and when the 'right to work' law was repealed was 'final and binding.'

"The three men are members of the Christadelphian Faith, which cites Corinthians II, 6:14, as the reason for not joining the union. Earlier, a union-shop steward had said he would try to obtain a shop-wide vote as to whether the men should be allowed to continue to pay union dues without becoming members, or be fired."

Court Ruling

The Supreme Court of the United States has ruled that compulsory unionization can be carried on by agreement between the employer and the majority of the employees of a company, and that this is based upon the commerce clause of the constitution. The court, however, has also ruled that compulsory membership in a union must not impair freedom of expression. This was decided in 1961, when the high court held that the authorization of a union shop by railroad workers does not permit the union — against the will of an employee — to use a member's dues to support political causes which he opposes, and that to do so violates the first amendment.

The court has not yet had a case requiring it to rule on whether religious beliefs are on a par with political beliefs in labor-union practices.

Compulsory unionization in itself has come to be accepted by the politicians as a part of labor-management relations whenever both parties wish to put such an agreement into effect. But in many a case the employer does not really act of his own volition. He is often forced, under penalty of a costly strike, to accept compulsory unionization, whereby he agrees to dismiss any employee who, after 30 days, does not join a union.

Also, in many instances, labor unions conduct what are, in effect, employment agencies. Employers accept applicants for employment only from those agencies. Thus, the "civil rights" of the worker are brushed aside, and "equal opportunity" vanishes as discrimination is openly practiced.

No Demonstrations

There are, however, no street "demonstrations" or "marches on Washington" in behalf of the individuals who are being told that they must conform to the dictates of a labor union and give up their freedom of thought in order to get or retain a job.

Many states have felt that it was necessary to pass "right to work" laws forbidding compulsory unionization, and 19 states have such laws on their books today. But the labor unions have always conducted a crusade against this legislation.

The existing federal statute permits any state to forbid compulsory unionization. All states which do not prohibit it are in the position of accepting compulsory unionization, because federal law allowing the practice has been upheld by the Supreme Court. Now, however, labor unions are demanding that the provision of the federal statute which allows the states discretionary power shall be repealed, and that no state in the union shall be permitted to pass any law prohibiting compulsory unionization. President Johnson has recommended such a step to Congress.

So the clock is moving toward more and more compulsion to join a union and the abolition of the "civil rights" of the individual so far as his right to work is concerned.

End of Milk Order Would Boost Prices

PMPC Makes Claim In Appeal to Head of USDA

FOND DU LAC (AP) — The Pure Milk Products Co-operative said today termination of the federal milk order for the Chicago market on April 1 would automatically raise by 24 per cent the price received by the farmer for bottling milk sold in most of 11 other midwest markets covered by federal orders.

The claim which was made by the PMPC is a statement which it said would be filed with the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The cooperative said the agency had requested views and arguments on a proposal for establishing prices for Class I, or bottling milk, on the 11 markets.

Protest Any Action
The PMPC statement said, "On behalf of dairy farmers everywhere, we protest any action by the secretary of agriculture which would stop this betterment of prices to the dairy farmers." The PMPC said the increase would amount to one-half cent per quart for dairy farmers.

The PMPC said market areas that would share in the increase are northwestern Indiana, St. Louis, the Rock River Valley, Milwaukee, Madison, the Quad Cities-Dubuque, Iowa, Ozarks, Cedar Rapids-Iowa City, north central Iowa and Des Moines.

Appleton Police Get Publicity

'Warning' Signs Tell Drivers of Speed Watch on Wisconsin Avenue

Appleton police working at by several neighborhood young speed "watch" on E Wisconsin Avenue generally don't get the publicity they feel they deserve but Wednesday they had more than they needed.

The patrolmen who operated the "watch" from 8:30 a.m. until early afternoon, were informed by a concerned truck driver that the policemen's work was not going unnoticed.

and interested in designating the official shoreline.

Mayor Clarence Mitchell has received information the PSC intends to conduct a hearing on the validity of the Yacht Club occupying some of the space that it does.

Survey Results

"It appears from the results of the survey that there is no doubt that a fill has been placed on the bed of the Fox River at this location," the chief engineer for the PSC, R. E. Purucker, says with reference to the Knauer property and Yacht Club.

"It also appears that a substantial structure owned by the Appleton Yacht Club exists in this area without benefit of a permit," Purucker added.

He said his office intended to recommend that the matter be set for hearing under section 30.03 of the state statutes.

Chance to Comply

In a letter to the Yacht Club, City Planner Walter Rasmussen and the Appleton office of the Corps of Engineers, the PSC engineer said the state agency would give parties involved an opportunity "to comply with the statute before formal action is initiated."

Legal counsel for Knauer requested, and the PSC has concurred however, that action be deferred until the city has had a chance to finalize its marina plans, and study the entire matter further.

Council Approves TV Survey for Appleton Sewers

Appleton sewers are going on TV.

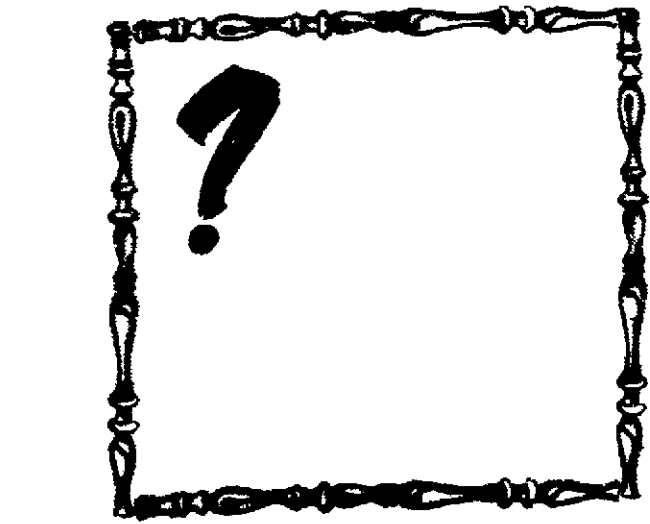

Television inspection of the city's underground utilities has been approved by the city council.

The "producer" will be the American Pipe Cleaning Co., of Minneapolis, at a cost of $10,000.

To be inspected this summer will be 39,500 feet of sewer lines — covering about 7.5 miles — in various parts of the city.

Money for the project was included in the 1965 budget, according to Public Works Director Robert W. Bues.

Pulling small TV cameras through sewer lines, and projecting pictures on a screen in a street-level mobile unit, eliminates the need for tearing up streets, Bues said.

which call for additional equitable or not, with the money you gave us to spend."

Catlin said, "Apparently your committee went at this with the idea of not spending any additional money. Is that right?"

Schroter told Catlin that was true.

"In other words," Catlin said, "this resolution doesn't try to give raises, it takes away from some and gives it to others. This makes it doubly important that this go to the joint committees, with the intention that they come back before the board in April with alternative suggestions, including some

Brown's Remedy Again Lapses in Popularity After Revival by LBJ

Although Brown's Medicine, an old-fashioned household cough remedy, has some ardent supporters, including President Johnson, most people in the Fox Cities never have heard of it.

The licorice-based mixture was brought to national prominence during the President's January seige with a cold. It was prescribed for him by White House physician Rear Adm. George Burkley, who said it undoubtedly helped to ease his cough and free his bronchial passages of clogging phlegm.

But, the doctor said, neither the old syrup nor the most modern antibiotic drug could have killed or conquered the virus that caused the cold.

Brown's mixture first came on the market in 1836 and was popular in Civil War days. It no longer is generally popular, however, and use by the President increased its sales only slightly.

Woman Hangs Self in Home

Mrs. J. H. Meyer, 61, Found in Basement By Her Husband

Mrs. John H. Meyer, 61, 419 E. Marquette St., was found dead in the basement of her home shortly after 10 a.m. today by her husband.

Outagamie County Coroner Bernard H. Kemps said the woman died by hanging and had apparently taken her own life.

A relative told Appleton police she had talked with Mrs. Meyer earlier this morning and that she had called Mrs. Meyer's husband at work. Meyer tried calling his home, but his wife answered and found his wife hanging in the basement when he rushed home. He called the police and the fire department rescue unit.

Faulty Furnace Causes Smoky Kimberly Home

KIMBERLY—Volunteer firemen were called to the Harold Lamers residence, 259 S. Willow St., about 6:50 a.m. today when the family smelled smoke in the home.

Firemen found a belt on a furnace blower slipping to cause the smoke and advised the owner to see a repairman.

Arsonist Makes Work For Students

MANITOWOC (AP) — Thirty-five students were back in school at the University of Wisconsin Extension Center here today but they were not attending classes.

They were working—and getting paid for it—to help clean up and repair the building which was badly damaged by a fire early Wednesday. The blaze was set by an arsonist.

The 35 young men will work a 12 hour shift and be replaced at 7 p.m. tonight by a similar group of students who also will work 12 hours.

Ray Grosnick, the school's administrator, said today that damage to the building and its contents may reach $200,000.

Speaking of a Hat...

The Appleton Y's Menettes called upon all the wonder, enchantment and artistry of the classic "Alice in Wonderland" for their 'Mad Hatter' style show Saturday at the Country Aire Club. Mrs. Donald Herring narrated the event.

Hats shown at the program ranged from bits of 'light-as-air' fluff to more substantial bretons and cloches. All were easy to wear and lovely to look at.

Mrs. George Petersen and Mrs. Gordon Steinberg were co-chairmen of the luncheon program.

Proceeds are slated for the Y Building Fund.

Miss Anne Joseph, modeling a spring bonnet for the younger set, pauses to give Mrs. Robert Brandt, Mrs. Roy Stark and Mrs. Eugene Brinkman time to see a pretty straw breton. Below, Mrs. John Harkins, right, ready for her appearance before the crowd in a collection of bright blooms, helps Diane Dafoe with last minute primping.

Mrs. Gene Britton, Queen of Hearts who stepped "Through the Looking Glass" for Saturday's hat show, waved her magic wand and bright spring bonnets appeared everywhere. The Y's Menettes benefit show was staged after a 1 p.m. luncheon at the Country Aire Club. At left, show guests express approval of this year's chapeau collection. ## Housewife Worth $8,000; Just Try to Collect It

BY JOY STILLLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — I have just learned from my friendly neighborhood banker that I, along with 29,999,999 of my coworkers, earn $8,285.63 a year at the going rates for all the jobs we hold under the general title of "housewife."

The Chase Manhattan Bank's Economic Research Department has conducted a survey which reveals what tasks the average housewife performs daily. The number of hours she spends on each, and the rate of pay for these jobs on the labor market.

Their statistics show that America's 30 million homemakers are worth $159.34 a week on the hoof, which is usually where they are during the 99.5 hours they're on the job. As one of them, I take issue with that number. I take issue with the troth of Miss Judith Ann Eckhart to Larry E. Guerin has been announced by her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eckhart, 913 S. Pearl St. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Guerin, 616 Broad St.

The bride-elect is employed at the Wisconsin Telephone Co. as a Neenah. Her fiancé is employed at the Quality Packing House. A Sept. 18 wedding is planned.

have any little ones around, but we wives who play nursemaid to boys over 40 surely deserve a bonus.

That total of $9.30 for 6.2 hours of dishwashing must be a little kilowatts helping out. I'm a strictly nonautomatic dishwasher myself, and I spend much longer than that acquiring my rose-colored detergent hands.

In all honesty, I'll have to be a seamstress at $2.50 an hour. Even if I could sew, I'd find some way to keep from spending 13 hours a week at it. Being a cook for 13.1 hours a week at $2.50 an hour sounds about right. But why don't we just take that $32.75 it adds up to and eat out?

General Duties Also on the list are dietitian, housekeeper, laundress, practical nurse, maintenance man, gardener and chauffeur, but in break to pick it up.

our household I have numerous other positions the bank economists never even thought of.

I'm not sure how much certified public accountants are getting these days, but I spend quite a few potentially golden moments making the bank balance come out even, keeping records and figuring out how to rob Peter to pay Paul.

My part-time job as a psychiatrist should bring in additional revenue. Every night my husband comes home, lies down on the couch and starts telling me his problems.

Then, of course, there's my detective work, for which I'm on call 24 hours a day to find a lost cuff link or locate an important paper.

I spend more than half an hour every morning in a very specialized job, trying to get my husband out of bed. I don't know what the pay scale is for human alarm clocks, but my task is getting harder and more time-consuming every day.

Meanwhile, Chase Manhattan get that $8,285.63 check ready for me. I'll stop in on my coffee gardener and chauffeur, but in break to pick it up.

Miss Caryl Lange

CLINTONVILLE — A July 10 wedding is planned by Miss Caryl Mae Lange and Donald D. Onesti, Milton, N.D. The couple's engagement was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lange, route 3, Clintonville. Mr. Onesti is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Onesti Sr., route 2, Wittenberg.

Miss Lange is employed at J. C. Penney Co., Inc. Her fiancé is the vocational agriculture instructor in the Milton school system.

Oregon Home of Newlyweds

KAUKAUNA — Peter J. Heindel claimed Miss Lynda Nell Melton as his bride Feb. 12 at the Eastside Baptist Church, Eastside, Ore. The double ring rite was performed by the Rev. James Brown.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie V. Melton, Eastside. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Heindel, 124 Brothers St.

Miss Donna Rider acted as maid of honor and Miss Melba Melton was bridesmaid.

Richard Martin attended as best man. Ushering duties were shared by Paul Savoy and Norman Neil. Danny Holden served as ring bearer.

Mrs. Heindel is employed at the postoffice of Coos Bay, Ore. Mr. Heindel is stationed with the Navy at Coos Head.

Four Crewmen Injured

Marine 'Copter Believed Shot Down by Viet Cong

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — A U.S. Marine Corps helicopter crashed and burned today 30 miles south of Da Nang, injuring four crewmen aboard.

Details were lacking, but it was presumed Viet Cong gunfire downed the craft.

The chopper, from a company which had been in Viet Nam several weeks, was believed on a supply mission to Vietnamese troops operating against the Communists in a valley south of Da Nang.

A Marine officer said three of the injured men were taken to the field hospital at Nha Trang and the fourth was brought here for treatment. The latter's injuries were said to be less serious.

One Killed

Viet Cong guerrillas Wednesday night lobbed a grenade or mortar shell into a Vietnamese position about eight miles northwest of the strategic Da Nang Air Base. One Vietnamese soldier was killed and two were wounded.

The action took place about three miles from the northwest outer perimeter of the defense zone set up by U.S. Marines who landed this week to protect the air base.

In Saigon, the South Vietnamese interior ministry released the names of 385 persons it said had signed a recent resolution sponsored by a so-called "Peace Movement Committee."

Names Published

The names were published following a cabinet decision to curb the activities of such committees, which it termed pro-Communist movements to misguide and deceive the public.

The government said it would deport a number of persons involved to North Viet Nam.

A ranking U.S. military spokesman said he feels the military situation throughout South Viet Nam has improved considerably in the past few weeks, particularly in mountainous Binh Dinh Province.

The Viet Cong had taken over most of the province in a series of large-scale actions, and Vietnamese and American military men considered the area critical.

Situation Insecure

"The situation in the hamlets may still be insecure up there," the spokesman said. "But from a military standpoint there has been enormous improvement, largely because we have committed half of our general reserve to the province."

The Mekong Delta south of Saigon has been quiet for weeks

New Decisions on U.S. Role in War in Viet Nam Studied

Presidential Policy Conference Indicates Changes Are Possible

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential policy conference at Camp David indicates new decisions on the U.S. role in the Vietnamese war may be in the making.

One question believed to be under top level consideration is whether U.S. air attacks on military bases in North Viet Nam should be carried deeper into that country. So far they have been restricted to the southern regions, well away from the capital, Hanoi.

Wednesday night's conference at the presidential retreat in the mountains of western Maryland brought together President Johnson, Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, and McGeorge Bundy and Bill D. Moyers, White House aides.

Major Topic

The topic for the meeting was not announced but it was understood that the major subject, at least, was Viet Nam and that Camp David was chosen by the President because it afforded a relaxed atmosphere in which he and his chief advisers could talk out the whole complex of problems associated with the Southeast Asian conflict.

These include the efforts by many other countries, including Britain, France and the Soviet Union, to initiate peace talks; political and military conditions

Texas Women Are Seeking Equal Rights

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas women are on the "equal rights" warpath again — and this time they're aiming to cut off a man's defense of justification for a homicide if he kills his wife's lover.

A woman doesn't have the same privilege in this state. If she catches her spouse in adultery and shoots the other woman, she is charged with murder.

State Rep. Bob Bass of De Kalb thought he had a remedy. In a bill introduced early in the session, he advocated giving men and women the same shooting privileges.

He admitted Wednesday to the House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee, however, that he guessed in a sense the bill defense.

Marines Board Ships Headed For Okinawa

6,000 Will Replace 3,500 Men Sent To Viet Nam Post

PEARL HARBOR, Hawaii (AP) — A 6,000-man Marine brigade boarded ships Wednesday night, reportedly bound for Okinawa to replace 3,500 Marines sent to South Viet Nam early this week.

"The Marines are moving," said a spokesman for Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp, Pacific military commander. There was no other official comment in Hawaii on the troop movement.

The 1st Marine Brigade members were moved from Hawaii's Kaneohe Marine Corps Air Station to Pearl Harbor by truck convoy last month.

Silver Lance

Original plans were for the Marines to take part in Operation Silver Lance, the military training maneuver off the California Coast.

But the first units of the brigade boarded ships Wednesday night for Okinawa, not California. About 1,000 brigade members are staying behind in Hawaii.

A report from Washington said the brigade includes helicopter units also bound for Okinawa, the main American military staging area in the Far Pacific.

With 7th Fleet

It was not known whether the Hawaii brigade would send a battalion to reinforce the Navy's 7th Fleet in the Pacific. The fleet lost its amphibious battalion when its men were ordered to Viet Nam with the other 3rd Marine Division troops that landed at Da Nang.

A Marine landing battalion is customarily attached to the 7th Fleet for quick action in emergencies.

The Hawaii brigade is reportedly carrying heavy gear — howitzers, mortars and tanks — to Okinawa. But Washington sources reported that the brigade's jet fighter planes would probably be left behind in Hawaii.

Trading Stamp Bill Gets Okay Of State Senate

Redemption in Cash or Merchandise Would be Allowed

MADISON (AP)—The Senate has approved and handed to the Assembly a bill that would allow retail trading stamps to be redeemed for either cash or merchandise in Wisconsin.

Following a two-hour debate Wednesday, the proposal was passed by a 17-15 margin. Trading stamps are redeemable now for only cash in the state.

Supporters of the change said the present limitation is harmful to industry and labor. They pointed out that several Wisconsin industries make products normally offered as premiums by stamp firms.

Disputes Claims

Sen. Casimir Kendzioriski, D-Milwaukee, disputed their claims and called the bill a "fraud, a fake and a farce."

The Senate's narrow passage of the bill marked a major point in the legislative history of the issue. Similar proposals have been introduced during the last three sessions, but none ever passed either house.

The Senate also voted 18-12 to liberalize payment of living expenses for legislators. The bill would enable the lawmakers to receive the usual $15 a day expenses payments when in Madison on legislative business other than regular sessions.

Now expense payments are made only for attendance of up to 110 days at regular sessions.

Cost of the increase was estimated at $54,000.

The Assembly State Affairs Committee introduced a proposal that would give 20,000 state employees a pay raise.

About 60 per cent of the $14 million increase would come from the state's general fund.

Johnson Pays Visit to U. S. Job Corps Camp

THURMONT, Md. (AP) — and down on a dormitory bed. Hand outburst, his tone chatty. The President asked for names, for hometowns, inquired into progress and often played it for laughs.

"Any of you all taken' photography? Plenty of jobs should be open," he remarked to riotous laughter as cameras recorded eagerly his coffee-drinking session.

But the chief executive also struck a serious stance Wednesday, telling one youth after another: "A lot depends on how you fellows make out. If you make a good job of it, the Congress will go along and make a lot of training available to other fellows."

The Job Corps camp, six miles up the Catoclin Mountains from here, is the first of 77 proposed conservation centers in 33 states. It is not far from Camp David, a rustic retreat used by every president since Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Youth Ordered To Trial in Coed Slaying

LANCASTER, Wis. (AP)—John Tregloan, 19, of Benton has been ordered to trial March 22 before Circuit Court Judge Richard Orton on a charge of first degree murder in the slaying of a Platteville State University coed.

Tregloan, who is held in the Grant County Jail, appeared Wednesday before Orton and waived his right to a trial before a jury.

Tregloan is accused in the death of Kathy Moan, 20, of Belvidere, Ill., who was shot to death Dec. 8 as she sat with a friend in the student union.

Federal Judge Rules Merger Of New York Banks Illegal

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal judge has ruled that the 1961 merger that made Manufacturers Hanover Trust Co. of New York the nation's fourth largest bank violated antitrust laws.

District Judge Lloyd F. MacMahon in a ruling late Wednesday gave the bank and the Justice Department 10 days to submit proposals leading to what, in effect, would be a reversal of the merger of the former Manufacturers Trust Co. and the Hanover Bank.

The order opened the door to a complex legal problem new this year to banking and law.

Similar Ruling

Only one similar ruling has been issued. That was by the Supreme Court in April involving the First Security National Bank and Trust Co., Lexington, Ky. Implementation of the ruling in that case is still pending.

In the Manufacturers Hanover case MacMahon ruled that "the merger of Manufacturers and Hanover is a combination in restraint of trade in commercial banking in the New York metropolitan area and in the United States, in violation of section one of the Sherman (antitrust) Act."

There is reasonable probability that the merger may substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in commercial banking," he wrote.

At the end of 1964 Manufacturers Hanover had assets of $6.971 billion and deposits of $6.04 billion. The only larger institutions were the Bank of America, San Francisco, and New York's Chase Manhattan and First National City Banks.

Man Asks to View Derringer, Uses It to Take His Own Life

VENTURA, Calif. (AP) — Gun shop owner Eddie Barnes told police that a man, later identified by officers as John D. Copus, 54, walked into his shop Wednesday and asked to see a derringer.

After examining the pistol he asked Barnes to load it for him. Barnes did, then told him he would have to wait three days for delivery—the time required for registering the gun.

Barnes said Copus told him he couldn't wait that long. Copus put the gun to his head and pulled the trigger. Barnes said Copus was dead on arrival at Ventura County General Hospital.

Boat With Skis Being Developed

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Lockheed-California Co. is developing a troop landing craft that skims the water at 48 miles an hour on retractable skis.

The 25-foot boat, called Hydro-Ski, was described Wednesday at the Marine Systems and Antisubmarine Warfare Conference.

The flat-bottomed craft has a pair of skis which retract into the hull. When they are extended at high speed, the boat rises clear out of the water to reduce wave impact. The skis are retracted again before the boat hits the beach.

Brown said waterjet engines are under development to replace propellers on the boat.

Two Appointed to Education Agencies

MADISON (AP)—Paul M. Ipsen, 42, operator of a Cuba City creamery, and W. Roy Kopp, a Platteville attorney, were appointed to state educational agencies Wednesday by Gov. Warren P. Knowles.

Ipsen was named to the State Commission for Academic Facilities, succeeding Leslie Paffrath of Racine.

Kopp, a graduate of the University of Wisconsin law school and a past president of the Grant County Bar Association, was named to the State College Board of Regents. He succeeds Richard S. McKnight of South Wayne.

Throw Out Losers for Expert Play

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD
National Men's Team Champion

When you cannot follow suit, it may be better to discard instead of ruffing. If you deliberately bring this situation about, executing a "loser-on-loser" play, make sure of discarding the right losers.

Declarer took the ace of diamonds and ran the three top hearts to get rid of the losing diamond. Then he led dummy's last heart and discarded a club.

It was a fine idea, as far as it went. If declarer ruffed a diamond instead of playing the fourth heart, he could then lead the king of spades to force out the ace. East would lead a club to the king, win the club return with the ace and then lead the jack of hearts. No matter how South played, West would get the setting trick with the ten of spades.

South hoped to prevent this situation from developing by giving the opponents the heart trick in exchange for a club. West foiled the plot by discarding the ten of clubs on the fourth heart. East naturally cashed the ace of clubs and led another club to make South ruff.

In the Middle
When South led the king of spades to drive out the ace, East returned a club and South was in the middle. West was sure to get his ten of spades.

South threw the wrong losers on the hearts. He should discard a club on the third heart and his other club on dummy's fourth heart. Even if West also discards a club, South can ruff the club return and lead the king of spades to force out the ace. South can then ruff another club and draw trumps with the queen and jack.

Daily Question
Partner opens with one spade and the next player passes. You hold S A 4 2, H J 10 9 4, D 10 8, C A 9 5 2. What do you say?
Answer: Bid two clubs and raise spades later. You have 9 points in high cards and 1 point for the doubleton, but you should treat this like an 11-point hand because of the two aces. Aces are really worth more than four points for suit contracts.

The gossip I cided last week that she doesn't hear from 12:30 to 1:30 is want to go to college. She thinks shocking.

It would be fun to "get out on her own." Is it possible that her obsession with so-called singing groups has warped her mind?

She spends all her money on records and magazines containing articles about her idols. When she isn't listening to records she is on the phone discussing them. She had aims and ambition until these singing groups came along.

Are we wrong to insist that she go to college? Help, please — R. C. M.

Dear R. C. M.: Don't blame the "so-called singing groups" because your daughter has no interest in going to college. The real reason for her lack of motivation goes much deeper.

No one should have privilege forced on them—and college is a privilege. The young person who goes to college to do his folks a favor wastes their money and his time and I am against.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Today I read in your column (for the 10th time) these words: "Talk to your clergyman or your family doctor." It sounds like good advice but how does one go about finding a clergyman or a family doctor who can be trusted?

Recently my husband and I moved from a city where we had some sad experiences because we confided in our clergyman. He told his wife everything—and she passed on every word to her friends. In that same city, a physician who had a fine practice employed a nurse who was the town busy-body. What he didn't tell her she picked up from the records. At present I am employed in

This fractures me. I am dying to tell Mom what is really going on because I hate to see her made a fool. Help, please — XXX

Dear XXX: Say nothing. If everyone in town knows about your father's disgraceful behavior your mother knows, too. She is trying to cover up for you kids. Pretending of this kind calls for tremendous courage. Your Mom deserves your respect and admiration. Have a talk with your father, however. Tell him you know about his high jinks and you think he should know that he's the subject of much ugly talk.

Middle-Aged Wives Get Very Tired, No Wonder

BY HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Re-marks that middle-aged wives get tired of hearing:

"If you're so bored, why don't you get a job?"
"Once a woman has her children raised, she's really at loose ends, isn't she?"
"Do you sometimes feel head-achy, run-down, tired?"
"Why don't you take up some interesting hobby — such as needlepoint or collecting pewter ashtrays?"
"Jim and I would love to have you and Dad to the party. Mother, but it's for a younger crowd. You wouldn't even speak the same language."
"Hi, Mommy! This is an emergency. I can't get a baby sitter and I simply can't miss my appointment at the beauty parlor. It's been ages since I've had my hair done. Would you mind coming over and taking care of your lovely grandchild this afternoon?"
"Well, how did you spend your day, Ella cackling with a bunch of old hens over the bridge table as usual?"
"The gray hardly shows at all, dear, except at the roots."
Then It Happens
"Good lord, Ella, what in heaven's name have you done to your hair? When I told you to go ahead and have it tinted red if it would make you feel better, I didn't think it would turn out this color. You look like a forest fire!"
"I'm afraid these dresses are a bit too — uh — too youthful for madam. Perhaps you'd find something more suitable in our department for mature matrons."

A Saving Hand
"Hi Mommy! This is an emergency. We're having Jim's boss and his wife to dinner tonight and I want to serve lobster casserole. Can you rush right over and show me how to make it? By the way, could you stop at the fish store and pick up the lobsters?"

"I know you feel sure of your husband, Ella, but at our age do you think any of us can really afford to trust them out of our sight?"

"If you had more to do, you wouldn't have time to feel so sorry for yourself."

"I know this old house holds a lot of memories, Ella, but with the children gone you and I just rattle around in it. If we sold it and moved into a cozy three-room apartment, just think of the money we'd save."

"I can't zip it up, Ella. Either you're going to have to get a larger girdle — or a stronger husband."

"Why do you still go on insisting that we eat by candlelight? That kind of stuff is for romantic kids and newlyweds."

"Don't tell me we're going out again tonight. I'm tired. I had a hard day at the office. Anyway, we already been out once this month."

"I guess I'd better not have one for the road, Joe. The old battle-ax has got her eye on me."

"Hi, Mommy! This is an emergency. Jim and I ran a little short and I wonder if you could lend us $50 until — but don't tell Dad. Gee, Mommy, I don't know what I'd do without you."

Johnny Mack Brown
Recalls Movie Career

Says His 35 Years in Films Were Happy
Ones, but Enjoys His Present Work

BY BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Johnny Mack Brown has a new card to go with the one he carries with the Screen Actors Guild. It announces that he is public relations director of a Hollywood car leasing firm.

You can find Johnny in an office in the midst of a big car lot on Hollywood Boulevard. He's 60 now and his figure has expanded from the years when he was hopping on and off horses for dear old Monogram. But he retains the native Alabama charm and cheerful outlook that marked his 35-year career in films.

"What is he doing in the car-leasing business?"

Left Movies

"Well, the movie business seemed to fold up and go overseas for a while there," he explained. "That made it rough on some of us. You can't just wait around for something to happen. I learned a long time ago that it's nice to be active. So when this chance came along, I took it."

Johnny noted that the picture business has been returning to its Hollywood headquarters, and he took time off from his job to appear in two recent films, "Requiem for a Gunfighter" and "The Bounty Killer." He will be receptive to other offers, meanwhile he pursues his new job.

The passing of film glory has embittered other stars, but not Johnny. "It's all been so very pleasant," he reflected. "I have nothing but happy memories."

Athlete Actor

He mused over some of them. He was one of the early athlete-actors of films, having attracted notice after starring in the Alabama-Washington Rose Bowl game of 1926.

"We were the third team to be asked," he recalled. "A lot of the Eastern colleges weren't interested in a Rose Bowl bid because it meant a five-day train trip each way. The players would miss Christmas and New Year's at home, plus two of three weeks of schooling."

"Well, they finally asked us, and we accepted. Coming from Alabama, we were expected to be lazy and have hookworm. I suppose we surprised 'em."

We licked Washington 20-19, and the game was generally acknowledged to have put Southern football on the map."

When Johnny returned to the Rose Bowl as an assistant coach the following year, he was tested by MGM, Fox and Paramount. MGM was the first to call with a contract offer. Johnny, who had just married the college sweetheart who is still his wife, decided to take it.

Big Movie Days

"I stayed five years at MGM and they were wonderful years," he said. "I played opposite Joan Crawford in her first big picture." Our Dancing Daughters. I also co-starred with Greta Garbo and Norma Shearer and with Jean Harlow in "The Secret Six," which was Clark Gable's first big picture. And I was with Mary Pickford in "Coquette." Remember that one? It won an Oscar for her."

Johnny shifted comfortably into westerns at Universal and Monogram. As the western market dwindled, so did his acting career.

For a time he worked as host at a West Side restaurant, now he's in the car leasing business, always with an eye to a time when his acting career might once again revive.

Will Stockdale To Stay on TV In 'Sergeants'

Star Sammy Jackson Happy, Thinks Role Just Right for Him

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Safe for next season is "No Time for Sergeants," and absolutely no one could be more delighted than the series' star, Sammy Jackson.

Sammy is 26, dark-haired, 6 feet 1 and full of boyish enthusiasm. Nothing makes his eyes glow more than when he talks about Will Stockdale, the bumbling humpkin he plays on Monday nights over ABC.

"I think Mac Hyman created in Will Stockdale one of the great characters of all time," says Sammy of the series success.

Has Identification

He cited other factors the ever written — confident but not fact that ABC went on the air cocky, humble but not with its new shows earlier than begging. "I had always figured 'No Time for Sergeants' was perfect for a hillbilly like me," said Sammy, who's drawl is scarcely noticeable when he isn't acting around Hollywood to star me in "Then I read in the trade papers, I still had them sent to me back home — that Warners was planning a television series based on 'No Time for Ser- geants.' I flipped. This was the break I was waiting for."

He composed a letter to the studio brass, and he classifies it as "one of the greatest letters as 'one of the greatest letters

Problems of Dependents Is Topic Discussed by Authority

This is the fourth in a series of 12 articles written by a widely known tax authority concerning the problems of the Wisconsin income tax payer. The series with questions and answers, is based on typical problems presented to the author from day to day in his practice as a certified public accountant.

BY NORMAN E. SCHLEY
For the Associated Press

Dependents & Exemptions
You are about to prepare your State of Wisconsin income tax return. By the time you had completed your tax accounting a year ago, you were quite familiar with the form and with the various terms. But a year has gone by, and you have forgotten much that you had learned. You do recall that in some cases you can deduct certain expenses on the State return, also that certain items of income are accounted for on the State return but not on the federal.

But let's get on with the return. Most people will have no problem in answering the "husband and wife" questions. But what about dependents? Under the state law a dependent is any one of a long list of individuals related to you by blood or marriage who received more than one-half of his or her support from the taxpayer, during a calendar year, and whose gross income is less than $600. (The instruction sheet erroneously reports $500.) You son, or daughter, or a mother or father pendent. A widow or widower should carefully look into this feature of the law, since it increases the amount of the exemption allowable. It is important to note that head of family status should not be claimed in the year in which the widow or widower lost his spouse.

Son Dies
Question: Twin sons were born to my wife and me in June of 1964. One of the boys died a short time later. May I deduct $20?

Answer: Yes. Dependents who are born or died during the year may be claimed dependents if they meet the three rules of a dependent described hereinabove. Also deduct $20 for yourself and wife and $10 for each additional dependent.

Question: May I deduct the premium on a health and accident insurance policy?

Answer: Yes, but only to the extent that the premium pays for the portion of the portion of the policy which provides for payment of medical expenses.

Question: My son who is over 21 years of age has completed college but has been unable to find a job in his specialty. Since he earned less than $600 during the past year may I deduct him as a dependent?

Answer: Yes. Provided you supplied more than 1/2 of his support.

Pastor Honored On Anniversary Of Ordination

GREENVILLE — Rev. Orvin Sommer, pastor of the Immanuel Evangelical Lutheran church, Greenville, and the Clayton Lutheran Church, was feted Sunday by the parish on the 25th anniversary of his ministry.

Pastor and Mrs. Sommer have served the area congregations for 12 years. His first pastorate was St. Paul Lutheran Church, Cataract, which he served for four years. He was at Zion Lutheran Church, Kingston, nine years.

Pastor Sommer is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Sommer, Fond du Lac.

Services in his honor were at 2 p.m. with Rev. H. W. Bergholz, associate pastor at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Appleton, and a classmate of Pastor Sommer, delivering the sermon. A luncheon was served by the Ladies Aid of the Greenville and Clayton churches.

The committee for the event included Rev. Charles Schlei, Hortonville, the officers of the church council and the Ladies Aid of the two parishes.

'Kwashiorkor' a Disease Attacking Children Who Lack Protein in Diet

EDITOR'S NOTE — For centuries, man has ravaged the planet on which he lives. He has destroyed land and water resources. Now, the experts agree, the time of reckoning is at hand. The following fourth of five articles tells of the hunger which prevails throughout much of the world and which may lead to famine, pestilence, and even war.

BY WILLIAM L. RYAN

Relatively few Americans ever heard of kwashiorkor.

In central Africa, the term means "the sickness the old baby gets when the new baby comes."

In the Congo they call it "mbuaki." In Jamaica, it's "sugar baby." In South Africa, "infant pellagra." In India, "neutritional distrophy."

It's a disease which attacks children who lack protein. The belly distends and swells out of proportion. Arms and legs become spindly. The child's hair turns gray. The skin cracks. Death comes in agony.

In the poor two-thirds of the world, children die of hunger because of what economists call "the protein gap." Proteins are essential to the growth and maintenance of the body. The readiest source is meat. Proteins are costly, and in the poor world, vast numbers are undernourished for lack of them.

The Result
What happens when a human being is undernourished? The result is listlessness, disease, deformed children, blind people. Those who have enough energy to do so, view the misery around them and react in anger. Hunger historically has led to violence, revolution and even major war.

Man has ravaged his planet for centuries, destroyed land and water resources. Now, multiplying at an alarming rate, he faces the reckoning. Is there an answer which can exorcise the specters of pestilence and war which haunt much of the world?

Two generations ago, economists might not have dared say the whole world could be fed adequately. But today, most experts say the knowhow, the technology and the resources exist to meet the problem if — and it is a big if — nations can learn to cooperate, learn that enormously expensive military defenses might not be enough to prevent the war that hunger might spark.

Feed Itself
In theory, humanity could feed itself indefinitely. In practice, it does not and is falling steadily behind. In theory, technical knowledge can produce new resources, new storage methods, new products, better distribution, better land use. Practically, many areas most needing reforms do little about it.

The U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization says the poor world urgently needs economic development to produce higher incomes. Others agree such development is vital, but there are other problems. Productive capacities of hungry populations are impaired by inadequate diet. They are unable to help themselves, to say nothing of earning foreign exchange to permit import of essential goods.

In one way or another, say Paul and William Paddock in a new book, "Hungry Nations," Americans give some form of supplementary food at a current rate of 100 million persons every day. It is not enough to overtake population increases. About a third of the total U.S. farm export goes to feeding the hungry, but programs still fall short of sustaining health.

Major Problems
Major problems in the way of self-help include illiteracy and lack of public health facilities.

In India, 80 of 100 persons still cannot read or write. About three of every four persons in India are engaged in agriculture, yet India produces only enough to provide 2,250 calories daily per person, of which an average of only 1,685 is consumed because of vast problems in the way. The United States, by contrast, has only one person in eight on farms, yet produces enough for 10,800 calories daily per person, of which Americans themselves consume 3,090 per person daily.

Japan, through intense, modern cultivation methods, uses what little land it has to produce 13,200 calories per acre to India's 2,500. If India could do what Japan does, there would be far less hunger there. But it will take many years to produce notable improvement.

Need More
Even now, at the low rate at which Indians eat, the country will need 20 million additional tons of food every year just to meet population increases alone. She needs more additional grain than the entire U.S. backlog, an amount, economists report, which would require 2,300 trips by 10,000-ton freights.

She does not have the means of distribution to handle such an influx in any event. The rich Atlantic world — possibly even America alone with its advanced techniques — probably could produce enough to feed everybody adequately. But there are big obstacles — distribution, lack of road and port facilities in many countries, the danger of stifling local incentive, need to protect local farm markets, protection of exporters' markets, local taboos and prejudices, interference from local politics, cold war considerations and many other problems.

The future is not all bleak. Modern technology is beginning to open wide vistas for the future. The means are available to meet the problem and ease the world crisis — if willingness to tackle it and sufficient international cooperation are forthcoming.

Next: promise of abundance?

Union Seeks Members at Courthouse

Municipal Group Asks Outagamie Employees to Join

Outagamie County courthouse employees are being solicited for membership in the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Union, a committee head of the employee's association said Tuesday.

Norbert Marx, head of the courthouse employee's association benefits committee, said about 60 application blanks for membership have been passed out among the 125 courthouse employees and there has been a demand for more blanks.

Marx said a meeting of 48 courthouse employees Monday night with representatives of the AFL-CIO affiliated government employees union showed a near-unanimous desire to form a local within the courthouse.

Employees in the Outagamie County highway department and negotiations with the county are not eligible for union membership, have indicated deformed locals, Marx said, and if the courthouse employees form, per cent of the employees must be members of the local, Marx said, the union will have membership indicate membership. ## Rico Carty Doesn't Want To be Braves' First Baseman

Milwaukee to Open Exhibition Play Saturday Against Dodgers

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — "I don't want to play first base," was Rico Carty's answer when asked how he felt about Manager Bobby Bragan's search through his outfielders for a player to plug an infield hole for the Milwaukee Braves.

Carty, the National League's second best hitter in his rookie season last year, said Wednesday, "I like left field. I've learned to play pretty good there. I don't want to play first base. I've never played it in all my life."

Carty is among several being considered for the first base assignment and takes a daily turn there with a borrowed glove and says he has no immediate intentions of buying his own. Among others being considered for the job are Lee Maye, another 300 hitter outfielder for

Milwaukee last year, and one-time outfielder Felipe Alou, who started the 1964 season at first but was forced out by injuries after a brief trial.

Alou in left. The Braves will open the exhibition season Saturday against the Los Angeles Dodgers at Vero Beach and Bragan has announced that Carty will start at first. Alou will be in left field and Maye in center.

Tony Cloninger, who led the Braves with 19 victories last season, will take the first mound turn. He will be followed by Wade Blasingame, another starter; Clay Carroll, a rookie expected to make a strong bid to stay, and Billy O'Dell, the veteran left-handed reliever acquired during the winter from San Francisco.

Completing the lineup will be

Denis Menke at second, Sandy Alomar at short, Ed Mathews at third, Hank Aaron in right field and Joe Torre catching.

Don Schollander Wins Top Sports Award on ABC Television Show

Olympian Tops Jimm, Brown in Final Balloting

NEW YORK (AP) — Don Schollander, 18-year-old winner of four Olympic gold medals in swimming, was selected Thursday night for the first annual "Grand Award of Sports."

The presentation of a 15-inch bronze and gold figure to the lad from Lake Oswego, Ore., was made by Col. John Glenn, the former astronaut, in a national television show by ABC.

Schollander, who was selected in January as the "Male Athlete of the Year" for 1964, in The Associated Press' 34th annual poll, was chosen in the final Grand Award voting over Jimmy Brown, of the Cleveland Browns, who had 66 points; Olympic running champion Peter Snell of New Zealand, 20; Bill Bradley, Princeton's All America basketball player, 14 and Notre Dame quarterback John Huarte, 7.

The selections were based on 1964 performances. Winners in 20 categories of sports were presented with miniature replicas of the major award.

The television show was arranged by the American Broadcasting Co. in association with Sports Illustrated and Time-Life Broadcast, officials of the World's Fair Corp. headed by Robert Moses, and Newbold Morris, commissioner of the New York City Department of Parks.

Terrors, Ships Clash In Key Sectional Tilt Friday Night

Meet Third Time This Season; Southern Door Plays Phantoms

Evansville '5' Extends Streak To 33 Straight

BY TERRY GALVIN

Appleton High School's Terrors, fourth-ranked in the state and Fox River Valley Conference titlist, oppose the eighth-rated Manitowoc Ships, FRVC runnerup, for the third time this season in an all-important basketball battle at 7 p.m. Friday in the WIAA Sectional Tournament at Green Bay's Brown County Arena.

Southern Door (19-1) and West De Pere (17-4) square off in the nightcap of the 4-team sectional. The winners meet at 8:30 p.m.

Saturday for a berth in the state tournament at Madison March 18-20. The losers will conclude the season at 7 p.m.

Booster Tags Available

Booster tags, "GO TERRORS, ON TO MADISON", are available upon request at Pond and Berggren Sport Shops and the Appleton High School. Louis (Hap) Waltman and the Peterson Press, have printed and distributed them.

Saturday for sectional consolation honors.

The 32 survivors of an original 430-team field will be sliced in half following Friday's competition at eight sectional sites around the state.

Only Rated Foes

Seven of the top 10 teams, according to the final Associated Press cage poll, are included among the survivors Appleton and Manitowoc, however, are the only rated teams pitted against each other on Friday's 16-game slate, an indication of the statewide importance of the Packer City opener.

12-Game String

Coach Dick Emanuel's Terrors, cruising along on a 12-game success string, boast an over-all mark of 19-2. The Ships, 17-4 on the current campaign won last season's consolation title in the state meet at Madison.

No strangers, Appleton lost to the final FRVC season round of the championship at stake, the Terrors' offset last year's 37-point outburst with 31 markers from senior forward Bob Ness and sizable contributions from AHS teammates en route to a 71-66 victory.

Landis Admits Unhappiness With Chisox

KC's New Addition Irked by Front Office, Lack of Opportunity

BY JACK HAND

BRADENTON, Fla., (AP) — Jim Landis found life in the dog house too confining. So he asked the Chicago White Sox to "play me or trade me." They obliged by shipping him off to Kansas City along with Mike Hershberger.

At Landis' request, owner Charles O. Finley of the A's Mantowoc, 66-59 in the first staked the pair to a vacation in Las Vegas to celebrate getting away from the White Sox.

Landis admits he was unhappy in Chicago. He thinks his last two years were wasted. Considering his batting average of .225 and .208 in those years, Al Lopez probably feels the same way.

According to Landis, his problems in Chicago arose from a dispute with the front office about fees to be paid the players for a television show.

"Out of Line," "I wasn't the only one to sound off," said Landis. "Maybe I was a little out of line when I suggested they compensate us in salary at the end of the year if the TV publicity helped draw more people Eddie Short, the general manager, chewed me out so I said 'if you feel that way, why don't you trade me?'. Al Lopez put me on the bench."

"I played opening day and didn't see hardly any action for months. I think I was up only about seven times. They didn't even use me as a pinch hitter. I made up my mind I wouldn't ask any more. If he wanted to play me he would."

"Finally we got in a situation where we had a chance to win the pennant. We were in Boston when Al called me into his office and told me I was going to start playing."

"It was like starting the season all over again. I had trouble getting started. Then I got hurt."

Green Bay Man's Blood Gifts Total 13 Gallons

OSHKOSH—A contribution completing 13 gallons of blood flowed from the veins of Edward Mc Hugh, 224 Mills St., Green Bay, into a container for the Red Cross bloodmobile visit at the First Congregational Church here Tuesday afternoon.

Mc Hugh, a Greyhound bus driver, spotted the blood bank announcement sign last week and phoned his niece, The Post-Crescent's Judy Russell, to make an appointment for him.

Since he began giving blood to the Red Cross in September of 1942, he has given 140 pints of blood—reaching the 1045th pint on Tuesday.

During that 22-year period, Mc Hugh has missed only five or six times that a blood bank was open. He contributes five times a year, which is all that is allowed one person.

Being a bus driver who in his spare time conducts tours to other parts of the country and Hawaii, Mc Hugh has left his blood with the Red Cross in Green Bay, Sturgeon Bay, Oconto, Sheboygan, De Pere, Milwaukee, Chicago, Miami.

Fla., Washington, D. C., Oshkosh and in Hawaii.

"Wherever I am, I donate," he explained. Illness prevented him from giving at Green Bay last week when the blood bank was open there. Noticing the sign of the Red Cross bloodmobile visit at Oshkosh this week, he arranged to give here. The bloodmobile is here through Friday.

His frequent gifts of blood at the reformatory at De Pere caused one youngster to remark, "Gee, he seems pretty old for an inmate." He has given blood at the reformatory about seven or eight times, he recalls.

On one occasion his "o" positive blood was donated for a two-year-old girl to undergo heart surgery and on another occasion the blood was earmarked for a Madison woman who was to receive heart surgery. Those gifts were left at Sturgeon Bay and at St. Boniface Church in De Pere.

The American Red Cross headquarters at Washington, D. C., gave him a plaque when he donated his 35th pint. This year's schedule includes a May 25 donation in Washington, D. C., a September donation in Green Bay and a Hawaii donation in December.

Mc Hugh's wallet is bulging with the numerous cards dating his pints of blood gifts.

Russell and Celtics Win

Acting Coach Nabs 18 Rebounds in 125-105 Victory

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The acting coach of the Boston Celtics has a sterling record for regular boss Red Auerbach today about big Bill Russell.

Auerbach was off on a scouting trip Wednesday while Russell and the Celtics romped over Detroit 124-106 and virtually ended any playoff hopes for the Pistons.

The acting coach's statistics on Russell read 25 points, 18 rebounds, five assists and seven blocked shots. An impressive line and one the acting coach will be most pleased to present to Auerbach. That's because the acting coach was Russell.

In Wednesday's other NBA action, New York ripped Philadelphia 134-123 and St. Louis thumped Cincinnati 137-113.

The Knicks won their second straight over the 76ers, scoring 40 points in each of the middle two quarters and overcoming an early Philadelphia bulge. Howie Komives had 26 points and Bob Boozer and Johnny Green 23 apiece for New York. Wilt Chamberlain's 27 led the losers.

The Hawks won their fifth straight with five men over 16 points led by Len Wilkens' 23. Jerry Lucas had 25 for the Royals.

Quits Two Days After Closing Out 15th Season

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Ray Eddy resigned as basketball coach at Purdue University Wednesday, two days after closing out his 15th season.

The former Boilermaker star will take an associate professorship in physical education which becomes vacant in June.

"I have been considering for several years a decision to end my coaching career," Eddy said in a written statement.

"Now with the opening of a teaching position which I can fill...I feel that this is the exact time to go into full-time teaching, an area with which I have already maintained active contact."

Fredrick L. Hovde, Purdue's president, said he was accepting Eddy's resignation "with great regret" and authorizing Athletic Director Guy (Red) Mackey to search for a new coach.

Purdue had a disappointing 12-12 over-all record this season and finished 5-9 in the Big Ten, but Dave Schellhase won the conference scoring championship and stood No. 4 in the nation.

Eddy, a star of two Purdue Big Ten championships, played on Boilermaker teams that won 46 games and lost nine in three seasons and claimed the national collegiate title in 1932. Graduated in 1934, he coached high school basketball five years at Tell City, Ind., and 11 years at Madison, Ind.

Eddy came to Purdue in the fall in 1950 when Purdue basketball fortunes had hit rock bottom. It was a slow buildup but his teams have finished in the first division of the Big Ten for seven of the last 10 years. His over-all mark at Purdue was 178-163.

"Now with the opening of a teaching position which I can fill...I feel that this is the exact time to go into full-time teaching, an area with which I have already maintained active contact."

Fredrick L. Hovde, Purdue's president, said he was accepting Eddy's resignation "with great regret" and authorizing Athletic Director Guy (Red) Mackey to search for a new coach.

Purdue had a disappointing 12-12 over-all record this season and finished 5-9 in the Big Ten, but Dave Schellhase won the conference scoring championship and stood No. 4 in the nation.

Eddy, a star of two Purdue Big Ten championships, played on Boilermaker teams that won 46 games and lost nine in three seasons and claimed the national collegiate title in 1932. Graduated in 1934, he coached high school basketball five years at Tell City, Ind., and 11 years at Madison, Ind.

Eddy came to Purdue in the fall in 1950 when Purdue basketball fortunes had hit rock bottom. It was a slow buildup but his teams have finished in the first division of the Big Ten for seven of the last 10 years. His over-all mark at Purdue was 178-163.

"Don't get me wrong about the White Sox. I hope they do well. Ken Berry, the kid who may take my old job, is a nice fellow. They do have some problems here and there. I'll say one thing. It was great to play behind pitchers like Juan Pizarro and Gary Peters. They have a kid, Joe Horlen, who can surprise everybody. With luck he can win 20 games.

"When we play the White Sox I'll play just the same as against any other team I've thought about it a lot. If I say I'm trying to get even I'll probably try too hard. So I'll relax as much as against anybody else.

I'm not a .200 hitter. I want to try to prove it in some way. It was nice to be with a contender but here I know I am going to play. With a little better luck on the mound, this can be a good club.

Mel McGaha, manager of the A's, expects to put Landis in center field and leave him there. He figures his defense will be tightened appreciably by the addition of the two former White Sox outfielders.

Arrangements Made to Air Braves Games

Milwaukee and 45
Other Communities
To Carry Broadcasts

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A co-operative arrangement under which Braves games will be broadcast in Milwaukee and about 45 other communities in Wisconsin this season was announced today.

Edmund Fitzgerald, president of Teams, Inc., announced that his organization, radio stations WTMJ and WEMP-FM of Milwaukee, the Majestic advertising agency and the Braves management have reached an agreement whereby the games will be broadcast here and on a statewide network of stations.

"This is a unique situation in the history of baseball broad-casts," Fitzgerald said. "To meet this situation the stations have pared their costs to the minimum. Neither the stations nor the agency will realize a profit from this plan. The Ma-jestic agency will offer adver-tising time on the broadcasts to commercial sponsors."

The club had lost its regular broadcast sponsors after the decision to move to Atlanta in 1966.

Merle Harmon of WEMP and Blaine Walsh of WTMJ will do the play-by-play for Milwaukee and other Wisconsin outlets.

The slate of games starts April 2 with 10 exhibition con-tests. The regular season broad-casts will begin April 12.

WTMJ will carry all weekend and night games until late in the season.

"walks" right over bumps and trouble

Independent front suspension takes the "truck" out of truck ride. It smooths rough roads, protects truck, driver and cargo from excessive jolting. And on Chevrolet pickups it's a proved system with millions of miles of user experience behind it. Try it out on one of Chevrolet's great Fleetside or Stepside pickups. It's one of the big reasons that Chevrolet is first choice with pickup users from coast to coast.

Governors Invited To Visit Johnson

unique to almost amazing perfection. It is paying off handsomely in Viet Nam, where fliers have little faith in the uncertain mercy of the Communist Viet Cong.

During recent American and South Vietnamese air raids on the Communist North, the air-sea rescue teams gave a daring display of their new versatility.

Of six pilots shot down, five were snatched to safety in a matter of hours — three from the sea and two from the ground.

Finding the downed pilot no longer is a hit or miss question. Fliers are equipped with small homing radios. Unless the radio is shot or the pilot badly hurt, the system can bring the rescue men in almost unerringly.

Rescue "Copter"

The twin-rotor "Husky" helicopters used for rescue missions are armored against small-arms fire and packed with specialized equipment. One valuable item is a cable-hoist that can descend 217 feet and lift 600 pounds. It has proved itself already in Viet Nam's deep jungles, though the ride up is not recommended for the weak-hearted.

The really valuable equipment is the manpower inside the Husky.

The crew chief and paramedic who ride the rescue cabin have perhaps more hard technical training than any such pint-sized military force in history.

In addition to normal flight training, marksmanship and such, the paramedic is a trained parachute jumper, a field medic, an underwater scuba expert and an expert in jungle survival. Along with the crew chief he also is a trained fire fighter — handling the 1,000-pound fire fighting pod, dangling beneath the chopper, which can spew forth a special foam powerful enough to quench a white hot fire.

Two Minutes

"We can have these missions in the air in less than two minutes," says Maj. Archie R. Taylor of Phoenix, Ariz., and Orlando, Fla., commander of the Detachment 4, Pacific Air Rescue Center, at Bien Hoa air-base.

The planes at Da Nang get most of the tricky missions.

Lt. Kemp Roedema of Garfield, N.J., is a case in point. The Skyraider pilot was shot down only 20 miles north of Saigon at about 9:30 one morning. He was back on the base at noon, having survived a brush with Viet Cong guerrillas almost within touching distance as he was snatched to safety.

"It beats walking," he beamed. "I wouldn't have wanted to be that paramedic who came down to get me."

The Husky crews also have two other missions which are less dashing but equally dangerous.

"We will do almost anything

Governors Invited To Visit Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House is sending out invitations to the nation's 50 governors to meet with President Johnson March 22-23.

The problems to be discussed, Johnson said, include those of the cities, transportation, pollution, crime, civil rights, how to maintain the economy at a high level, and international relations.

to bring out the bodies of guys who crash out there," says Capt. John Boyles, DeLand, Fla., a father of four with 10 years experience as a helicopter pilot. "We also go out to destroy downed planes, particularly the guns."

The Communist Viet Cong are quick to pounce on downed aircraft and strip them of their machine guns or cannons.

The Two Amherst Youths who held a hostage at gunpoint Wednesday before being overpowered were well armed. Waupaca County sheriff authorities found a .45 caliber pistol, a straight

1 Youth Overpowered by Hostage

Brief Crime Spree of Two Amherst Boys Ends Abruptly

WAUPACA — Two Amherst youths, both 16, who held a helpful motorist captive at the point of a loaded pistol, were overpowered at Sheridan service station by their hostage Wednesday afternoon and have been turned over to Portage County authorities.

Police said the youths admitted they were running away from home and had taken one car belonging to one youth's mother, had stolen a truck which they later overturned, then held Frank Grulke, 38, route 1, Amherst, hostage in his car after Grulke had offered to give the youths aid after the truck mishap.

Two Suitcases
Found with the youths was a suitcase which contained clothing and another case which contained several knives, a straight razor and ammunition for the .45 caliber automatic pistol.

Waupaca County Sheriff Loran Frazier and Undersheriff William Mork questioned the youths about burglaries in Amherst, Junction, Stevens Point and Schofield.

Authorities have given this account of the incident.

The youths did not attend Amherst High School Wednesday afternoon, but instead took one youth's mother's car which later froze up.

Pickup Truck
The youths then took a pickup truck parked along an Amherst street and drove to Waupaca where they purchased two quarts of oil. On a curve near Sheridan the truck overturned and the youths received minor cuts.

Grulke stopped his car and offered to give the youths assistance when he saw their injured in the rioting were refused proper medical treatment.

Germany to Hold to Israel Arms Decision

BOON, Germany (AP) — chief Karl Guenther von Hase, West Germany plans to stick to its decision not to resume arms shipments to Israel, a spokesman for Chancellor Ludwig Erhard said today.

Israel reportedly is demanding that the Erhard government resume the shipments as a condition for establishing diplomatic relations with West Germany.

The Bonn government scoffed at a threat today by President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic to cripple West German trade if Erhard recognizes the Israeli government.

Halted Shipments
West Germany halted the arms shipments under pressure from Nasser. About $20 million worth of an $80-million deal remained to be delivered.

Court Refuses to Hold King as March Leader

100 Keeping Street Vigil For Unitarian Minister Unconscious, Near Death

BY REX THOMAS

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — A federal judge rejected today a motion by Sheriff James G. Clark of Dallas County that Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., leader of a massive Negro voter drive, be held in contempt for leading a street march at Selma.

"Any contempt or order to show cause is a matter between this court and the alleged contemtor," said U.S. Dist. Judge Frank M. Johnson Jr.

The motion by Clark's attorneys came at the outset of a hearing on a move by civil rights leaders and the Justice Department for an order barring interference with peaceful demonstrations.

The motion for a contempt proceeding against King was based on his leading a Tuesday march of about 2,500 Negroes and white clergymen from a Selma church to a meeting with state troopers. King turned back when halted by the troopers.

Johnson had ordered civil rights leaders to suspend their planned march from Selma to Montgomery. He gave no indication today whether he considered the attempted march a violation of his order.

The meeting of King and the troopers and the peaceful ending of the march were prearranged with the aid of federal officials. A similar march Sunday was broken up when troopers clubbed and tear-gassed the marchers.

While the hearing went on, about 100 demonstrators continued a prayer vigil in a Selma street for a white minister lying near death after a beating by a white gang.

King was called as a witness. So were Clark and Col. Albert J. Lingo, commander of state troopers. Other witnesses included the mother and grandfather of Jimmie Lee Jackson, a Negro laborer shot to death Feb. 18 in racial violence.

There were these other developments on the Alabama racial scene:

Clergyman Still Unconscious

Three Men Face Charges in Beating of White Minister

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A white minister was near death today in a hospital, his anxious wife near his side, while in Selma three white men faced state and federal charges in the beating given him and two other Unitarian clergymen.

The Rev. James J. Reeb, 38, of Boston, still was unconscious from a clubbing he received Tuesday night in Selma as the aftermath of a civil rights march there.

His wife, Marie, was with him at the hospital, pale and shaken by what had happened. The mother of four children told newsmen Wednesday after her arrival from Boston that both she and her husband had been aware of the potential danger when he took the trip South.

"I said I would prefer that he didn't go," she said, her lips quivering slightly. "But he felt he had to go."

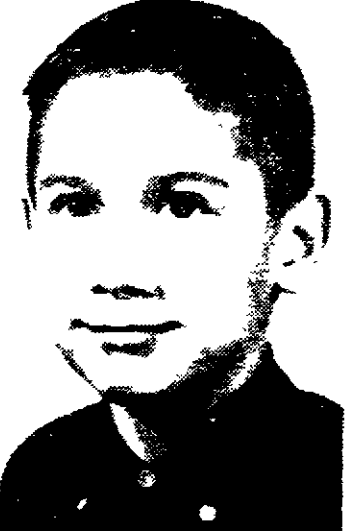

Mrs. Reeb said her husband considered the civil rights cause important enough to merit the beating he received at the hands of white men outside a Selma cafe.

Escaped Injury
Reeb was with the Rev. Orloff F. Miller, 25, of Boston, and the Rev. Clark Olson, 32, of Berkeley, Calif. at the time. Miller and Olson escaped serious injury.

Three men were arrested in connection with the incident and pickup orders were issued for a fourth man still at large. Two of the men were released from Selma city jail early today on bond of $7500 each on "upset."

Personnel Changes Sought

Indonesia Navy Men Refuse an Ultimatum

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — three officers came to Jakarta a group of Indonesian navy officers demanding changes in the sea service reportedly have ignored an ultimatum to return to the duty at the Surabaya naval base in east Java.

Reliable information reaching here today said, however, that the Indonesian navy has 2,000 officers and 23,000 enlisted men. Its major war vessels are one cruiser, five destroyers and six submarines.

Then the two Selma men, William Stanley Hoggie, 36, and Elmer Cook, 41, were taken into custody by FBI agents on federal warrants charging conspiracy to violate the ministers' civil rights. Shortly afterward a U.S. commissioner released them on bonds of $5,000.

Third Man
A third Selma man, R. B. Kelly, 30, remained in city jail. Should he make bond there he would then be arraigned on the federal charge.

Reeb was taken by ambulance the 90 miles to Birmingham for an operation at the University of Alabama Medical Center. It was there his wife found him, still unconscious. She received yellow roses and a special telegram from President Johnson, another message from Sen. Edward Kennedy, D-Mass., and dozens of telegrams from all over the nation.

Mrs. Reeb said she informed their four children their father had been hurt. "The three younger children didn't understand," she said, "but the older boy, 13, was quite upset."

Advocates of Civil Rights Sitting-in at White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — About a dozen civil rights advocates staged a sit-in demonstration in the White House today.

The demonstrators, whites and Negroes, entered the executive mansion with the regular flow of tourists and, once they got into the ground-floor hallway, sat on the floor and began chanting, "We shall not be moved."

Maj. Ralph Stover, chief of the White House police force, went to the scene and asked the demonstrators to leave. They made no move.

The demonstration — nothing like it ever happened before at the White House — began sometime before noon. At the noon hour, the people still were sitting on the corridor floor, adjacent to the diplomatic reception room and the White House library.

This is on the floor below the mansion's most familiar rooms — the East, Blue, Red and Green rooms, and the state dining room.

It was understood that President Johnson was in the mansion — not in his office — when the demonstration began.

At least one police patrol wagon was sent to the east wing of the White House after the sit-in began.

Seek Mediation in Viet Nam

Churches Council Critical of U. S.

GENEVA (AP) — The World Council of Churches sharply criticized U.S. policy in Viet Nam today and suggested that Southeast Asian countries not be involved in the struggle there be asked to mediate.

A statement issued by the council's Commission on International Affairs called U.S. measures to offset Communist infiltration in Viet Nam futile if said they only risk the danger of escalating the conflict.

Prepared Statement
The statement was prepared by the commission's chairman, Sir Kenneth Grubb of London; and its director, Dr. O. Frederick Nolde of New York. It was endorsed by the World Council, which represents more than 200 Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox churches in some 80 countries.

The statement also sharply criticized U.S. policy toward Communist China.

"The continued artificial isolation of some 700 million people is a dangerous situation and may aggravate the intransigence of the government in effective power—an intransigence which has thus far made peaceful solutions in the area difficult or impossible," the statement said.

The statement also suggested that the Soviet Union, Britain and France, as great powers which may enjoy the confidence of both sides in the conflict, may be able to negotiate a settlement in Viet Nam.

"The expressed will of the people of South Viet Nam or the decision of a government freely chosen by them, taking into account the common concern of all peoples, is the essential justification for the presence of foreign forces on their territory," the statement said.

"Peace will be endangered only precariously maintained so long as one side supports wars of liberation and the other provides military support for the defense of freedom."

100 Continue Street Vigil For Minister

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Light chilling rain today dwindled the ranks of civil rights demonstrators holding a night-and-day street vigil for a white minister critically injured in an attack here.

Only about 100 demonstrators, led by white and Negro clergymen, continued the vigil — begun shortly after dark Wednesday by about 350 persons who tried to march to the courthouse. They were blocked by police. The street was roped off.

Every 10 or 15 minutes a prayer was said aloud. Many of the demonstrators were teen-agers, and they appeared to be enjoying themselves. Some of them laughed and giggled while the prayers were said.

B57 Bomber Crash Reported

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A U.S. Air Force B57 jet bomber crashed late today on a strike mission in Binh Dinh Province, about 260 miles north of Saigon.

The fate of the two Americans aboard was not immediately known, but a ground search party reported no bodies in the wreckage.

Thousands March in Sympathy

Federal Intervention Sought in Selma Dilemma

NEW YORK (AP) — More protest demonstrations were held in cities across the nation over the situation in Selma, Ala., with increasing demands for federal intervention.

As thousands marched in sympathy with the drive by Alabama Negroes for voting rights, governors, senators and church groups spoke out Wednesday.

There were demands for stronger law enforcement protection, in the wake of the attack in Selma on three white ministers.

James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, threatened a massive march on Washington unless President Johnson endorses new voting rights legislation and sends federal officers into Alabama by Sunday.

Soon after returning from Selma, Farmer told a New York news conference: "I am certainly charging that President Johnson has not been forceful enough."

The latest demonstrations were held in San Francisco, Kansas City, Los Angeles, Cambridge, Mass.; Madison, Wis.; Buffalo, N.Y.; Joliet, Ill. and in front of the White House.

The National Council of Churches called a meeting for Friday of religious leaders from across the country. The gathering will be at the Lutheran Church of the Reformation in Washington.

Demonstrations at the federal building in Los Angeles resulted in 98 arrests, including 29 persons who were charged with obstruction of U.S. mail after they lay down in front of mail trucks and were forcibly removed. The building was closed early.

Leslie N. Shaw, Negro postmaster of Los Angeles, criticized the demonstrations.

Harry Bridges, West Coast longshoremen's union leader, told 1,500 persons at a San Francisco rally that his 65,000 union members would "refuse to handle any goods or merchandise from Alabama until the rights of all the people of Alabama are recognized and fully protected."

Board Honors Two Who Will Quit in April

Miller of Shiocton
Ends 24 Years as County Supervisor

Two veteran Outagamie County Board supervisors, who have announced they are not seeking re-election, were honored Wednesday by the board.

They were Supv. George Miller (Shiocton), who has served on the Outagamie board since 1941, and John Heidemann (Town of Buchanan), who has been on the board since 1958.

Chairman Alvin Fulcer praised Miller as "a man who has really served his constituents well" and Heidemann as "a good supervisor." Miller told the board that he and his wife are moving to Iowa. Heidemann, who said he has been in public life since 1928, said he is retiring "so that I can enjoy the remaining years that I have."

Receive Ovation
Both men were given a standing ovation by the county board.

Prior to adjournment Wednesday afternoon, the board has once again focused attention on the government's expanding use of a 50 mile per hour speed limit on County Trunk E (Ballard Road).

As a result of the action, a 50 m.p.h. speed limit exists on the road from Mason Street to Ballard Road.

Fines for violations of the speed limits are not to be more than $200, nor less than $10.

The action was taken at the request of Appleton Police Chief Earl Wolff and was approved in advance by the State Highway Commission.

Probation of Youth Revoked by Waupaca Court

WAUPACA — The probation of Larry Nelson, 19, route 1, Waupaca, has been revoked, according to LaVern Hanke, state patrol and probation officer.

Nelson was placed on probation for three years Nov. 17, 1964, after he pleaded guilty of burglary and four counts of theft. The charges stemmed from a break-in at the Windmill, a rural Waupaca tavern.

Nelson had been sentenced to three years at the Green Bay State Reformatory but the sentence was stayed and he was placed on probation by County Judge Wendell McHenry. Hanke said the probation was revoked because Nelson failed to keep his job. Nelson was taken to Green Bay Tuesday to start serving his sentence.

Probation Ordered for New London Youth on Charge of Burglary

WAUPACA — Jerry H. Frenche, 18, S. Pearl Street, New London, was placed on probation for two years Wednesday when he appeared in Waupaca County Court and pleaded guilty to charges of burglary and criminal damage to property.

New London city police arrested Frenche after he and a Stevens and a Waupaca County 17-year-old youth burglarized the Tribby Hardware Store, Nov. 1 and later caused an estimated $126 damage to property at Hatten Memorial Park.

Frenche was ordered to make restitution to the City of New London for the damage he caused and pay court costs. All of the property taken from the hardware store was recovered.

Pick Lawyer to Defend Man on Adultery Count

WAUPACA — A New London attorney, Edward Macklin, was appointed Wednesday to defend James Brush, 32, Avon Street, New London, who is charged with adultery.

Brush was arraigned in County Court before Judge Wendell McHenry and told the court that he did not have the funds to hire a defense attorney.

Brush was arrested Nov. 29 by New London city police. He is free on $1,000 bond.

Fremont Scouts Reorganized; Officers Elected

FREMONT — James Redemann Monday was elected senior patrol leader of the newly reorganized Boy Scout troops in the village. Officers of the Beaver patrol are Bruce Kramer, patrol leader; James Rupno, assistant patrol leader and Richard Mathwig, scribe.

The Fox patrol officers are James Abraham, leader; Rex Koenemann, assistant, and Ronald McKevitt, scribe.

Scoutmaster Evan Redemann and Mike Redemann, assistant scoutmaster will direct the tenderfoot classes; Lawrence McKevitt will work with the second class scouts and Robert Riemann and Roy Reichenbach will direct activities of the first class scouts.

'Viewpoint' To Discuss School Aid

The request by President Johnson for $1,225,000,000 in federal funds for aid to elementary and secondary education has once again focused attention on the government's expanding role in the schooling of our children.

The merits and disadvantages of the government's participation in education will be the basis of the discussion on Channel 11's Viewpoint series at 10:25 p.m. today.

The program, entitled "Federal Aid to Education," will have as guest panelists Dr. Mojmir Povolny, chairman, department of government, Lawrence University; Richard Lison, Green Bay, who will present the lay-Catholic attitude; Miss Helen Fedeslev, Green Bay teacher; and John Bie, Green Bay teacher.

Viewers are invited to telephone questions to the panel. Viewpoint is produced and moderated by Philip J. Richtscheidt, General Manager of WLUK-TV, and Donald W. Pancher, Director of News and Special Events.

Waupaca Host to Manawa Leaders

WAUPACA — The Waupaca Association of Commerce will be host to Manawa businessmen and civic leaders at a good fellowship event tonight at the Waupaca Country Club.

The event is the third in a series of goodfellowship nights which the Waupaca Association of Commerce is sponsoring for neighboring Waupaca County communities.

Manawa Man Given 2 Years Probation; Judge Stays Jail Sentence

WAUPACA — Norman Winters, 26, Manawa, was placed on probation for two years, when he appeared Wednesday in Waupaca County Court and pleaded guilty to charges of disorderly conduct and resisting arrest.

Winters was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail on the disorderly conduct charge and six months for resisting arrest, but the sentences were stayed by Judge Wendell McHenry.

One of the provisions of the probation was that Winters is not allowed to be in any tavern or drink any intoxicating beverages during the two-year period.

Winters was arrested in Manawa by Police Chief Kenneth Stevens and a Waupaca County Traffic Patrolman when he refused to leave a tavern. He also was ordered to pay Court costs.

Little Wolf Treasurer Candidate Unopposed In Township Election

MANAWA — Harold Scheffeler, route 1, Manawa, will be unopposed for his first term office as treasurer of the April 6 elections. He was the only candidate filing for the position at the town caucus Saturday.

Scheffeler will replace Louis Kienetz, veteran town treasurer of 28 years who declined to seek reelection because of poor health.

Township incumbents to appear April 6 without opposition will be Ben W. Ferg, chairman; Arnold Glocke, first supervisor; Eugene Eder, second supervisor; Martin Thiel, clerk; Arthur Patri, assessor, and Erwin Patri, constable.

Plan Group's Legislation Hits Snag

power enterprises never entered into the motivation or the preparation.

Utility Fears
But utility spokesmen made clear their fear that the bill as drafted — with complex references to numerous existing chapters and sections of state law — would make it easier for municipalities or groups of local governments to enter the utility field.

It was when Assemblyman George Belting of Beloit asked Franchette whether the Fox River Valley area is content with its existing power and other utilities that there were veiled references to the possible combination of the existing Kaukauna and Menasha municipal electric utilities under the proposed law.

Franchette explained that the Valley now has private and municipally owned utilities, and that both are apparently serving satisfactorily.

Mrs. Dorothy Stillings, an Appleton alderman, asserted that "never in the world did we think of electricity or telephones," and Walter Rasmusson, director of planning for the City of Appleton said he had deduced during the hearing that the possibility of a municipal utility combination had inspired objections to the regional projects bill.

Park Plan
Others reminded the committee that the original inspiration for the regional projects legislation came about when the idea of converting Stroebe's Island into a regional public park was discussed several years ago. Other possibilities would include district expressway projects, spokesmen said.

While the bill's sponsors disclaimed any intention of challenging the operations of privately owned utilities, the utility spokesmen declared that they have no desire to impede the legitimate aspiration of the Valley commission to sponsor regional public service projects that are needed and desired.

Churches Join for World Prayer Day

CLINTONVILLE — Representatives of the five participating churches spoke at the World Day of Prayer observance Friday afternoon at Christ Congregational Church.

They were Mrs. Raymond Krueger of Bethany Evangelical Free Church, Mrs. Melvin Kerstner of Salem Evangelical United Brethren Church, Mrs. John A. Johnson of Apostolic Tabernacle, Mrs. Lewis Thomas of First Methodist Church and Mrs. Max Schrader of Christ Congregational Churches. Mrs. Lowell Velte of the EUB church was soloist.

A talk on "Prayer" was given by Rev. John A. Szemore, pastor of Christ Congregational Church.

A tea followed in the church basement.

Miss Wisconsin, Angela Gina Baldi, right, and Sherry Nehring, Miss Marion, reigned over the Marion Lions Club fish derby Sunday. Miss Wisconsin also piloted a snowmobile to victory in race for women entrants. (Brandenberg Photo)

some and gives it to others. This makes it doubly important that this go to the jointing committees, with the intention that they come back before the board in April with alternative suggestions, including some which call for additional amounts of money."

Supv. Patrick Mares (Appleton 19), a member of the civil service and salary committee, said, "The board tied our hands to the tune of $155,000."

"That's exactly how much it's going to cost to make everyone happy," he said, "and that means full implementation of the Jacobs' report."

During the discussion of the plan, it was revealed that even if the full implementation of the Jacobs' plan is adopted by the board, unionized county employees feel the raises would only be putting pay up to where it should have been three years ago.

The highway committee has been negotiating with union representatives for county highway employees since last October. Supv. Edward Peotter (Town of Osborn), chairman of the highway committee, said that once this plan is approved, talks will have to start on another new contract.

Several supervisors shouted, "Let them go on strike."

Robert Gabriel Heads League At New London

NEW LONDON — Robert Gabriel Monday was elected president of the New London Boy's Baseball League succeeding Sigurd W. Krostue.

Other officers elected were James Sheahan, vice president, Elmer Thiel, treasurer, and Robert Kroll, secretary.

Officers said that for the league to operate as it should, more adults must take part in the program. Adults are needed as managers, coaches, umpires and to assist in the operation of the league.

Another meeting will be held soon to work on committee appointment, schedules and to discuss the annual draft of new ball players.

Christus Luther League Enters Cage Tourney

CLINTONVILLE — The Christus Senior Luther League is sending a team to participate in the Zion Lutheran Invitational Basketball Tournament Saturday and Sunday at the Zion Lutheran Recreational Center in Appleton.

Members of the Christus team are Robert Korb, captain, Dale Maue, John Larson, Greg Anunson, Todd Everson, Roy Schultz, John Hagedorn and Robert Suchman. Kurt Holm is coach.

The recreation center will be open to all leaguers during the tournament.

Harve Wolfe to Quit as Outagamie County's Republican Chairman

Annual Party Caucus, Election
Of Officers Scheduled March 18

Outagamie County's Republican Party will have a new increasing pressures of business chairman after next Thursday's and the needs of my family do County party caucus.

Chairman Harve Wolfe told delegates today that he will not seek another term when the county GOP elects officers at its annual caucus.

The new chairman will be elected at the meeting at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Conway Hotel. So far, no one has announced plans to be a candidate for the job.

Wolfe, 33, has held the position of county chairman for about a year. He was selected by the party's executive committee to replace John Conway who resigned to become Eighth District GOP chairman.

Wolfe said today his decision was a difficult one to make. "The rewards," he said, "there are several people to come from working with many people who have the singular objective of good government based on sound principle; and in knowing that what is done is in the best interests of all our changes in county GOP's executive committee. ## Violence and Alabama State Police

There was something pathetic about the hundreds of Alabama State troopers in their uniforms, with billy clubs and revolvers on hip, who lined up to bar the way to the civil rights protestors who wanted to march from Selma to Montgomery.

Dallas County is reportedly in a state of jitters over the increasingly serious demonstrations and the retaliations against them by Alabama officials. There are many more Negroes in Dallas County than white people. But to date the real threats to law and order have not come from the Negroes.

The interruption of the Tuesday march was obviously part of an agreement among Dr. Martin Luther King, Le Roy Collins and John Doar so that both sides would appear to have gained some recognition. But the interruption last Sunday, with flailing nightsticks, and tear gas, did not serve as some southerners so fondly hoped it would to put the Negroes in their place, wherever that is. Instead it appeared to be a vicarious way for the white segregationist to get rid of the frustrations he has been building during the Negro demand for the right to vote—something supposedly assured him almost a hundred years ago. And the charge of the state troopers also gave new ammunition to claims by civil rights advocates that brutality is the major weapon of the segregationist and the white supremacist in Alabama.

Meanwhile, the real troublemakers in the south came to evidence once more when the march was called off and the demonstrators had dispersed. Three white clergymen were seriously beaten on the street in Selma by white toughs.

What is the purpose of the state police in Alabama? To keep peace and order and bring criminals to trial or to obey blindly Governor George Wallace's order to keep marchers off the highway because they might get hurt?

Tenure of County Officers

Associations of county officers have appealed to the state legislature, apparently as a result of the movement for lengthening the terms of office of the governor and lieutenant governor, to change the law to give them four year holds on their offices instead of the two-year terms of long custom.

We find ourselves generally sympathetic with their arguments. There is no good reason why a register of deeds, or a county clerk, or a clerk of court, or any of the several other elected functionaries in our courthouses, who are paid to perform jobs that have no relation whatever to political judgment or policy, should sacrifice much of their time in alternate years, beating the bushes for the votes they need to keep them at their desks.

Yet there is very little prospect that their plea to the legislature will be successful, as most of them must know as a consequence of their own experience and training in the business of party politics. Their bill won't be defeated on its merits. It has merit. It will be rejected, or sidetracked in a committee pigeonhole, because of the institutional interests of political parties.

Other candidates whose duties require that they be elected, including members of the legislature now sitting in judgment on the tenure bill, need these county officer candidates to beef up their own party campaigns biennially. Except for that consideration, it is likely that this state would have abandoned popular elections of most county officials altogether. While there is no objective need for short terms for them, there is even less objective need for running them on party tickets, or even for electing most of them. There is perhaps more justification for electing the high school principal than there is for polling the electorate on the competence of the surveyor and the coroner.

We are involved here with the mechanical characteristics of party politics and party competition. Perhaps one day our parties will conclude that they don't need these courthouse assistants in getting out the vote for their side. But there is no sign that such a conviction has yet spread among the politicians now ruling in Wisconsin, in either party. We must regretfully conclude, therefore, that the emissaries the county clerks and county treasurers are sending to Madison are wasting their time.

at our trade relations with Communist countries.

But his remarks over the weekend stand in sharp contrast to demands by the Senate-House Republican leadership the day before for a much tougher American attitude toward Russia. Republican spokesmen described their wants as a "no-concession, no-deal policy."

With the crisis in Viet Nam occupying so much of our attention in foreign affairs today it is difficult to maintain a long-range perspective.

On the military front there is no doubt we will have to maintain for some years to come our posture of actively resisting the spread of communism. Secretary of State Dean Rusk also pointed out over the weekend to our European allies that drawing a line in Asia is equally as important as a line in Europe.

But what about the diplomatic and psychological front?

Is there a real chance that as a nation like Russia improves its standard of living its communist theory of government will evolve into less offensive forms? Is there evidence today that such an evolution is in process?

And if so should the United States accommodate its attitude toward Russia to changing circumstances?

Senator Fulbright's proposals at least have the advantage of being positive and constructive and containing a vision of a world order embracing both East and West which can live with each other.

Farms Hard Hit by Army Draft

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for March 11, 1965.

Our farmers have been greatly affected by the recent and last call for men in fact, the prospects are that when the present call is filled by drafting, only old men, boys and women will be left in most of our county towns.

In most other northern Wisconsin counties the same results are reported. In other States similar complaints are being made.

Now it may be a serious question as to how our forces in the field and citizens at home are to be supplied with the necessities of life. There may be and doubtless will be a sufficient quantity of breadstuffs and provisions on hand for some time, but it will continue to increase in price as producers are called into the army, until it may be so far beyond the reach of the general mass of people that great suffering will of necessity ensue.

It therefore behooves all who remain at home to cultivate as much ground as possible to their several circumstances. Every garden plot, every vacant lot and farm should be compelled to make full returns to the husbandman.

More Troops, Planes, Naval Craft Are Going to Viet Nam

BY ROBERT S. ALLEN AND PAUL SCOTT

More troops, planes and combat naval craft are going to Communist-battered South Viet Nam.

Of urgent recommendation of Ambassador Taylor, President Johnson has approved:

—2,000 additional military advisers and technicians to be sent over a period of several months. Under present plans, by June 1, U. S. military forces in South Viet Nam—Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines—will total more than 30,000.

—An unpublishable number of F-105 jet attack fighters and bombers.

—A number of small patrol boats. Fast and powerfully armed, they will be used to combat Communist smuggling of men and weapons into South Viet Nam from North Viet Nam. The boats will be manned by South Vietnamese and U. S. technicians.

Still undecided is reinforcing the Seventh Fleet with additional nuclear-powered Polaris-armed submarines.

One of these subs already is on "battle station" in the Far East.

With Red China increasingly vituperative and threatening, Navy authorities favor "beefing up" the Seventh Fleet with several of the catalytic nuclear underwater craft.

Each armed with 16 latest-model Polaris nuclear missiles, with a range of more than 2,500 miles, these subs have the capability of wiping out Communist China's major industrial and communications centers—all located along the coast.

While eager to get the additional F-105 attack fighters and jet bombers, the Air Force is irked over the tight controls on their use.

On direct instructions from President Johnson, napalm and fragmentation bombs are barred in air strikes against North Viet Nam targets. Only so-called "iron" (explosive) bombs are permitted in these attacks.

Also, all North Viet Nam targets are explicitly specified by Washington before air strikes are approved.

Anti-personnel and napalm bombs continue to be used against the Viet Cong in South Viet Nam. But lately the amount of napalm has been cut down, again on orders from Washington.

In all these important decisions, McGeorge Bundy, special foreign affairs adviser to the President, is playing a key role. His backstage influence now exceeds that of Secretary Rusk. Bundy spent several days in South Viet Nam last month conferring with Ambassador Taylor and other high officials.

Bundy's younger brother

FAR EAST FLASHES

Intelligence reports that in recent months there have been a number of clashes, some of considerable size, between Mongolian and Red Chinese forces. Mongolia is pro-Soviet, and its army is Russian trained and equipped. All three countries maintain large forces on their borders. . . . Red China's air force has some 2,600 combat planes, of which about 2,000 are jets: 1,600 MIG-15s and MIG-17s. The remainder are light and medium Russian-made bombers, about 400 subsonic jets. The Chinese also have an estimated 75 to 100 MIG-19s, but no MIG-21s, latest model of these attack fighters. A crucial weakness of the Chinese air force is shortage of jet fuel. Recently the Reds claimed to have attained "basic self-sufficiency" in oil requirements, but data analysis revealed that applied only to crude petroleum. They still have to import most of their jet fuel—as a consequence of which their combat pilots average less than 10 hours a month flying as compared to a minimum of 20 in the U. S. Air Force.

World Needs More, Not Less Sister Jacqueline

I am writing in regard to Mary H. Kools' letter a few weeks ago regarding John Griffin's "Black Like Me" and the criticism of the Sister Jacqueline of today.

Being disturbed over the letter, I hesitated writing fearing my prejudice would show inasmuch as I am one of her many fans, having grown up with her, admiring her and following her dynamic career. Sister Jacqueline, Vice-President of Webster College, doesn't need defending because her many accomplishments speak for her. She has been written up in the Times Magazine—June 21, 1963; a three page article in the Oct. 23rd Life Magazine and incidentally, she says "Indoctrination is a mistake in the Church and a mistake in education." Her numerous talks have been written up in many papers; she was on President Kennedy's advisory panel on research and development in education and recently was one of the principal speakers at a White House Tea sponsored by Mrs. Johnson, who was host to 200 women from all parts of the country.

Knowing Sister, I'm sure she did read "Black Like Me" and in time I will find out if I am wrong. I myself cannot say enough about the book and was filled with compassion for the Negroes after reading it. Our high school children have read it as required reading and I am grateful they were exposed to this book and the plight of the colored race in this country. Also after hearing Dr. Gilbert James speak at our Home School meeting this week, I feel more strongly that this book was not over-exaggerated.

How very proud we are of Sister Jacqueline, and the many other Sisters and good laymen of any denomination who have the courage and zeal to crusade for the principles they believe in making this a better world for all of us.

Senate Housekeeper Held Potent Position In State Legislature

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — The passing of Lawrence R. Larsen, the powerful housekeeper of the Wisconsin State Senate during most of the years since 1935, probably marks the beginning of the end of an era in state legislative politics.

Few men in modern state-house history have had the influence on legislative affairs in spite of nominally modest rank that was held during more than two decades by the gruff, self-contained politician from Racine who collapsed and died on duty last week. As in almost all legislative bodies and notably in the U. S. Congress, the Wisconsin Legislature has a circle of insiders. It does not relate especially to politics or ideology. It involves the personality of men and their responses to each other. Larsen was one of the most firmly entrenched of the insiders in the Wisconsin legislative machinery.

Scores of freshman lobbyists, newspapermen, state officials, and even new legislators and especially lieutenant governors learned their trades more quickly because Larsen often wondered enviously why they were ignored.

COMPANION Effective legislative work requires a competent knowledge of parliamentary law and procedure. Many a man has walked to the presiding officer's chair in the Senate during his first weeks as lieutenant governor with trepidation.

With few exceptions, the lieutenant governors during the last 30 years found Larsen a handy man to lean upon. Some presiding officers learned quickly. Some found it difficult to master the intricacies of the rules interwoven with more than a century of precedents. It made little difference. Each time a point of order or a complex motion was raised, he would turn to the presiding officer and with a grating voice that could easily be heard all over the chamber offered his own authoritative advice about the proper procedure.

Larsen's passing illustrates one of the problems of the historian and the political scientist in the documentation of state and local political history. Had Larsen been a letter writing or a memorandum-preserving man, his papers would now be priceless as source materials for an important and exciting period in modern Wisconsin history.

Only a fortnight before his death, a newspaperman friend urged him to use the generous stenographic facilities of the legislature to record some of his recollections and experiences in a key office during a period which encompassed the rule of three separate political parties and the careers of hundreds of men who rose to higher places.

NO RESPONSE

But the reporter friend got only a skeptical smile for his pains. For all of his pride in his work and his joy in relating the revealing anecdotes of his rich experiences, he feared that acknowledgment of his place in the local political history of his times would have been a revelation of pride.

There are many men like Larsen in that regard. Some politicians have an acute awareness of posterity. Biographers of the late Robert M. LaFollette Sr., for example, have told of the methodical care he employed to save every scrap of paper connected with his career. Others have no taste for it whatever, and state and local history is poorer as a result.

A story of the legislature and its operations during 30 years as Larsen saw it from his most intimate vantage point would have been a significant contribution to the record of the times.

Strictly Personal

Sleeping Thru Banquet Speeches Acquired Art

BY SYDNEY J. HARRIS

Purely Personal Prejudices: The best test of a nation's taste and maturity is the type of persons it considers "celebrities," and by this standard, we do not rate very high on the scale of civilized nations.

There are two kinds of men who fear women: one kind holds them off at a distance so that they cannot strike; the other kind clasps them so closely that they cannot strike; thus, both the misogynist and the Don Juan are displaying the same fear in directly opposite ways.

Many years ago, I made the observation that all mayors of big cities look alike; recent news photographs indicate that all sheriffs of small Southern towns are cast in the same mold, with thick necks, red faces and little pig eyes.

Has anyone ever heard of an actor writing to a newspaper complaining that the review of his performance on opening night was too favorable, and that he was really in rotten form? So long as performers object to underestimation, and never to overestimation, we cannot take their complaints seriously.

Current controversialists about capital punishment should be reminded of Remy de Gourmont's remark: "It is quite obvious that those who are in favor of the death penalty have more affinities with murderers than those who oppose it."

Almost everybody misuses the word "tinker," in such phrases as "I'm just tinkering around with the motor," for the true meaning of the word is "an unskillful and ineffectual attempt to mend or improve," and not simply a harmless playing around or experimenting.

Philosophers with a tendency to doubt cannot see the inherent contradiction in believing in skepticism.

No one should really consider himself to be successful in public life until he has mastered the art of sleeping during speeches at banquets without being detected, by seeming to be intensely concentrating on the speech while catching forty winks.

"Small percentage" increases are most misleading; for instance, before 1850 the rate of the world's population increase was 1 percent; since then, it has increased at a rate of 2 percent a year, which sounds little, but if this rate had prevailed since the time of Christ, there would be 23 million people for every person now living!

Science pretends not to make "value judgments," but it does do so, by ignoring or minimizing whatever cannot be measured quantitatively.

Whenever I hear suggestions that some book ought to be censored, I recall the Gallup Poll figures that 70 adults out of every 100 in America don't read a single book in a year; and it seems to me that the other 30 ought to be allowed to read whatever they please.

Heat's on LBJ From Viet Nam And Alabama

Explosive Problems
Bring End to Period
Of Cool Tranquility

BY JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is feeling the heat. The two big puzzles the nation faces, oceans apart and unrelated, burst on him after a long period of comparatively cool tranquility.

Events in Viet Nam and Selma, Ala., at this moment beyond prediction by Johnson or anyone else, may deeply affect his presidency and his future.

In Viet Nam he has taken strong action against the North Vietnamese to try to smash their will to war. They show no signs of buckling. And if Johnson further intensifies the war, he can't tell what Russia and Red China will do.

Divided Opinion
But there is divided opinion here at home on what his policy should be.

Yet, if the Southeast Asian problem looks baffling, it is no more so than what is happening in Alabama where civil rights forces are demonstrating for Negroes' voting rights. Here he is reluctant to intervene directly.

He has taken some indirect steps, through aides and a call for reason, to cool off both sides, the civil rights people and the Alabama authorities. But pressure is piling up on him for far more direct action.

Turn On Heat
At Selma the heat was turned on him Sunday when 40 Negroes in a civil rights march were clubbed by State Police who had been instructed by Gov. George C. Wallace to prevent them from continuing their journey.

They had wanted to march 50 miles from Selma to the Capitol at Montgomery to present him with a petition to let more Negroes vote.

Then three white ministers from the North, in Selma to help in the civil rights struggle, were beaten on the city streets. One was gravely injured. A second march, planned for Tuesday, was forbidden by a federal judge.

Planned Hearing
He planned a hearing on the whole business today. But Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. defied the court order and started another march. This was abandoned when state troopers stood in the way.

Wednesday night there was another demonstration in Selma. Police blocked this one.

All these events brought roars of protest from across much of the nation by many political leaders, church groups, union officials, governors, mayors, legislators, students, and civil rights workers.

Republicans in Congress called for presidential action. In Los Angeles 35 civil rights workers were arrested in front of the federal building as they protested the treatment of Negroes in Selma.

Demonstrators Picket
In San Francisco the longshoremen's president, Harry Bridges, proposed that his union refuse to handle goods from Alabama. Demonstrators picketed the White House, one with a sign saying "shame."

Other demonstrators picketed the Justice Department and, for two days in a row, were hauled out of it when they refused to leave at closing time.

The President is preparing a bill to submit to Congress to protect Negro voting rights. As he works on it, Negroes are threatening a march on Washington unless it is a truly strong bill.

Future Action
But the most unpredictable element in this uproar was the future action of the civil rights leaders in Alabama, particularly Dr. King.

There seemed no particular purpose in the Tuesday march, which troopers turned back without violence, and the demonstration Wednesday night except to dramatize for the nation their boiling discontent.

It seems unlikely this can go on indefinitely without violent explosions. But Johnson, contrary to his previous tactics on major problems before the nation, has been extraordinarily quiet on Viet Nam and Selma.

Beloit Students Back to Class After March

Walked to Madison In Support of Selma Rights Campaign

BY JOHN IGLEHART

MADISON (AP)—A group of Beloit College students was back in class today, footsore after a 50-mile sympathy march for Alabama Negroes, but re- membering well that Gov. War- ren P. Knowles backed their cause.

Knowles and Lt. Gov. Patrick J. Lucey greeted the weary marchers Wednesday afternoon at the west entrance to the state capitol. Many of the 133 stu- dents sat on concrete while the Republican chief executive com- demned the "repressive and vi- olent measures" taken against Alabama Negroes.

"Tear gas and clubs used against defenseless men, wom- en and children may be effec- tive temporarily in restraining such demonstrations," Knowles said, "but the basic right of citi- zenship cannot long be denied by such means."

Carried Signs

"Beloit to Madison" and "50 Miles for Freedom" were printed on signs carried by the marchers. Before the governor spoke they were joined by about 75 other college-aged youths who had been demonstrating at the U.S. Post Office in Madison.

"Few incidents in recent years have so aroused the con- science of the nation as the re- sistance and violent measures taken...in Alabama against those who were peaceably af- firming their right to vote," Knowles said.

"Your presence here is evi- dence of your belief in America...and I join you in the hope that freedom and justice will soon prevail in all the states of the union."

Listening to Knowles from the front row was assemblyman Lloyd Barbee, D-Milwaukee, who earlier was rebuffed in his attempt to introduce a resolu- tion concerning the "shameful occurrences in Selma, Ala." Later the resolution was intro- duced by a committee.

Lt. Gov. Lucey, a Democrat, followed Knowles and recalled Wisconsin's presidential prima- ry last year when Alabama Gov. George Wallace polled 266,000 votes. He ran against former Gov. John W. Reynolds on the Democratic ticket.

"I'm ashamed to recall that more than a quarter million persons listened to Wallace's siren call and voted for him for president," Lucey said.

The lieutenant governor said Wisconsin was not without its own problems in the area of discrimination.

Fair Housing

"I would hope that Gov. Knowles and the Legislature would join with me in enacting a fair housing law," Lucey said. Loud applause followed.

"Any legislator who tells you there is not a problem in this area is dead wrong," Lucey con- tinued. "As a realist, I know a problem exists."

After the capitol gathering the students regrouped at a local church before starting their trip back to Beloit in automo- biles.

Dr. Robert Irrmann, chair- man of the college's history de- partment, preceded the state of- ficials to the speaker's table.

Irrmann recalled that about 100 years ago a group of Beloit College students went to Ala- bama to help Negroes in the reconstruction period following the Civil War.

Lucey Hits Resolution On Apportionment

MADISON (AP) — Lt. Gov. Patrick J. Lucey has con- demned a resolution that seeks to amend the federal constitu- tion to allow an apportionment based on area for one house of a state legislature.

In a public hearing Wednes- day before the Senate Judiciary Committee, he said the propo- sal was a move to destroy equal voting rights.

The resolution, sponsored by four Republican senators, asks Congress to call a constitutional convention for the purpose of initiating such an amendment.

Since Peron's fall the country has known little internal peace. Upheavals and violence marked the immediate post-Peron peri- od. Amid high hopes for a re- turn to order, Arturo Frondizi assumed the presidency in 1958. But 37 crises later he was boot- ed out by the army, in 1962.

The 17 months of President Arturo Illia's government are regarded as the longest continu- ous period of political peace in the decade.

One result has been a steady drain on the country's skilled human resources.

A Buenos Aires weekly finan- cial publication, the Economist, said 12,600 Argentine engineers and scientists are presently em- ployed in the United States. Thousands more, it said, were working in Spain, France, Eng- land, West Germany, Brazil and Venezuela.

Prime Reason

A prime reason for the exodus was low pay. Up to a year ago, National Atomic Energy Com- mission technicians were paid 6,000 to 8,000 pesos monthly, about $43 to $56. Fulltime uni- versity professors earned about $250 a month.

All this is occurring in a coun- try whose interior is begging for development.

Seventy per cent of Argenti- na's 21 million peoples are clustered in a semi-circular belt extending 500 miles from Bue- nos Aires. Here two-thirds of the nation's railroads and paved highways are located.

Serious transportation prob- lems are believed developing in this industrialized sector.

Set Vote

Against this bleak back- ground, Illia's government seeks a vote of confidence in congressional elections Sunday.

The results will determine the fate of a government recovery program based chiefly on consol- idation of democratic processes trampled by successive govern- ments and the armed forces for the past 33 years.

Lacking a majority in the Chamber of Deputies but work- ing through compromises, the Illia government has pushed through some controversial leg- islation including, for the first time in Argentine history, a minimum wage law.

Government strategists are expecting only a slight improve- ment in their congressional strength in the elections. This would be regarded as a vote of support because of the fierce pro-electoral pressures being ex- erted by a score of opposition parties.

Steel Negotiators Trying to Settle Plant Complaints

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Basic steel negotiators moved quickly today to settle plant-level com- plaints so they could get down to the major issues of wages and job security.

Separate negotiating sessions between the United Steel- workers Union and the "Big 11" steel producers resumed Tues- day after a two-month recess forced by the union's still unre- solved election.

Many of these meetings, which each involved scores of people, broke up Wednesday into smaller groups.

This signaled the start of tough, head-to-head bargaining on local complaints, a vital is- sue this year since the union says it won't sign a contract unless they are settled.

Excess Lung Moisture Due to Heart Failure

BY JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D. But it is quite a Dear Dr. Molner: Please different condition from pulmonary edema. I believe water rises in the chest and stops the heart, causing death. Is it always fatal?

Dr. Molner

Dear Dr. Molner: I have a great deal of trouble and pain from white canker sores in my mouth, sometimes a soreness and swelling cheeks, tongue or lips, and swollen glands under tongue and in throat. I have heard that lack of acid in the stomach is the culprit. I am 40 and have a low blood count. — Mrs. L. V.

To me, this suggests an allergic condition. At your age I'd doubt that lack of acid in the stomach is involved. Some acids in foods (not stomach acids) could be implicated, vinegar, citric acid or ingredients in chocolate, for common examples. Nuts can, for some people, cause this trouble, too.

Lack of stomach acid and low blood count might (and here I'm reaching afield) suggest pernicious anemia, which, in turn would lower your general resistance to infections. But if that were the case, your doctor could detect it with further blood tests. So I'd first of all suspect allergy of some sort.

Note to Mrs. McM.: Yes, women with diabetes can become pregnant, and yes, they can carry the baby full term, but the diabetes must be controlled. This means being under close supervision of your doctor from the moment you suspect you are pregnant.

Much heart trouble is preventable. Write to Dr. Molner in care of the Post-Crescent for your copy of his booklet, "How To Take Care of Your Heart," enclosing long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.
